Parish Council Meeting 21 February 2011

Middle eastern despots fled their rioting capitals this month, and there was no sign of Chairman Andrew at this month's meeting. Absolutely no speculation abounded that he had fled to the Scillies with the bulk of the parish precept. Vice-chairman Gerry disposed of the agenda in a brisk 50 minutes, with the following surprises...

We have a new co-opted parish councillor, David Peck whose profile is elsewhere in the newsletter. Gerry then told us that the Standards Board, which sets national standards for the delivery of local government, was to be abolished as part of the new Localism Bill; unless they wrote their own new rules or elected to continue with the old ones, councillors would have no ethical guidelines. Council clerk Chris Harris quite rightly warned our councillors against feeling free to indulge in bullying or harassment as these were criminal offences and could lead to police investigation and referral to the DPP. Better to bung them a fiver to keep them off your back. Cornwall Council is currently creating its medium-term strategy for the major elements of social structure, e.g. housing, employment, transport and has issued a Core Strategy document on which it would like public comment. Cargreen is mentioned specifically as a possible site for additional housing so you might like to find out more on the County website, following the link from Local Development Framework to Core Strategy to Area Based Discussion Paper, and making your views known on their questionnaire by 28 April. These documents are also available at Saltash Library One Stop Shop.

Planning. Council recommended approval for:

Conversion of stone barns to two residential dwellings, West Kingsmill farm, Landulph.

(Absolutely no speculation abounded that these were earmarked for a Mr Mubarak and a Colonel Gaddafi).

Morton Macleod

Parish Council Meeting and Annual Assembly 21st March 2011

It was well worth the 10-strong audience missing 'The Archers' tonight, for not only did we enjoy the dignity and historic rituals of Annual Assembly, but some unscripted asides too. In Public Forum, Reg Rice muttered "skulduggery" when told that there was no record of what happened to sums of money which he remembered being earmarked for footpaths and a youth club. Later, "lets ask the bag ladies” was how Andrew invited advice from the fragrant duo on how to subdivide the parish’s tonne of road salt into smaller loads, possibly in plastic bags....

The routine business was uncontentious and frankly a bit dull, but it was with clear pleasure that Andrew welcomed Dave Peck to the council as its newest member. There is still one unfilled vacancy.

Planning. Council recommended approval for:

2.5MW solar PV development, West Kingsmill farm, Landulph.

Annual Assembly. Andrew delivered a synopsis of a busy year, and drew attention to the Core Strategy document mentioned above. He then introduced the guest speaker, Mr Steve Cranmer from Cornwall Council who gave a county-wide view on affordable housing, highlighting the large need, the various sources of public and private funding, possible impacts of the Localism Bill, and the fact that it may take Cornwall several more months to produce a coherent county-wide planning policy. As for Landulph, a Housing Association is thought to have refreshed its interest in a local project. This could include accommodation for the elderly as well as young families.

Morton Macleod

New Parish Councillor

Dave Peck (38), 2 Colloggett House, Landulph, (01752) 840725. Dave, with his wife and three children, is the third generation of his family to live at Colloggett. He has been resident in the parish for most of his life- and has an intimate knowledge of its advantages as well as its problems. He and his family run Riverside Garage at Tideford.

Concerned that there was a shortage of volunteers to serve on the council, he decided to put himself forward in order to help ‘preserve and promote the Parish for present and future inhabitants’. He describes himself as open minded, fair and approachable, so if you have problems you feel the parish should address, he could be the man to approach.

While he appreciates the work of the few people who keep the spirit at the heart of the village alive, he also feels it is too easy to take a back seat. He hopes others will be encouraged to join in. Inspired by Morton MacLeod’s Council reports, he hopes meetings are going to be fun!

Editorial

The Newsletter is delighted to welcome our younger contributors. Thank you to Amelia for her lovely illustration for our front page and also to David, of Class 3, for his very well written article about recent events in the school. We hope to include further articles from our younger readers in future editions.

Landulph Memorial Hall

Does anyone want to read about an AGM, probably not?

However I would like to say thank you to all who came to the AGM and welcome to the new members of the Landulph Hall Management Committee who are Faye Ranieri, Nicky Toynton, Juliet Donner, Gina Watts, Nikki Gill and Nicola Small.

There is a complete list of committee members on the Hall notice boards.

A most exciting piece of news is the installation of the new screen and projector. Diane Gregory submitted an application to Grassroots for a grant and was successful. This has enabled the purchase of the large screen which is fitted to the stage ceiling, a projector to the hall ceiling and a DVD player and the connections need for a laptop etc. The work was done by Pridhams of Callington.

It will cost £15 to hire in addition to the normal hall hire if you wish to use the equipment. There may be performing arts costs to be paid and the hirer is responsible for this.

Cuban evening: A fund raising event will take place on 18 June at the Hall. The theme is to be a Cuban evening.

Keep the date free in your diary, start getting your Cuban heels & tropical outfits out from the back of the wardrobe, more details on the notice boards and in the newsletter nearer the date.

Pantomime: Do you want to be Cinderella, Aladdin or Puss in Boots? We are asking if you would like to be involved in putting on a panto in the hall in January 2012. Let me know.

Sailing Season Begins Early

Parishioners will have noticed boats beginning to appear on their river moorings recently. Exceptionally high (and low) tides at the end of March allowed Cargreen Yacht Club members to get their boats in early this year and start the season almost a month earlier than usual.

The season officially starts with the Fitting-Out Lunch on Saturday 10 April though dinghy racing begins the evening before. Cadet events start on 15 April.

The club is planning to conduct a survey of the river shortly. It will cover the reach from Weir Point to Neil Point with the intention of establishing the course of the deep water channel and the actual depth beneath the club moorings. It is believed the channel has shifted towards the Cornwall side over recent years. The job began with an aerial photo survey on 20 March when the lowest tide for years revealed much of what the club needs to know.

Landulph School

We are delighted that, following an inspection on the 20 and 21 January, Landulph has been praised as a good and happy school in a positive report from Ofsted inspectors. Extracts from the report can be viewed on the school website www.landulphschool.co.uk where there is also a link to the full report.

We are again collecting Sainsbury and Tesco Vouchers which provide the school with valuable additional resources. If you have any of these vouchers and are able to donate them to the school, please drop them into the school office where they will be gratefully received.

The Landrake Fun Run was yet again a huge success with 17 pupils entered from our KS2 year groups. With over 600 entrants in total this proved to be a very exciting event. All our pupils survived the challenging course with Finley being the first to arrive at the finish from Landulph school in 14th place.

We all enjoyed the exciting events that Year Six organised for Red Nose Day on 18 March. Events included a sponsored three-legged race, cake stall, a trail of pennies around the school and a talent show. A magnificent total of £464.64 was raised with some sponsorship money still to come in. Thank you to all who contributed.

A Piece of History Uncovered

When a pipe burst in the school loft in the early part of this year the hall ceiling was damaged and had to be taken down, uncovering the clock workings and signatures on a beam. The signatures are of some of those who wound the clock by hand, and included Peter Hunkin, Ruth Francis Hunkin, R J Hosking, Victor Prideaux and Lewis Wills whose signatures were plain, see photo.

Peter Hunkin was the head master, Ruth was his daughter. R J Hosking, signed "winder since 1927", Reg Hosking as we knew him, passed away in 2010. Victor Prideaux wound the clock till his retirement in 1974, then his daughter Pauline Rutherford who now lives at Callington took over until the clock was fully automated in 2010.

Lewis Wills who is nearly 93, now lives in Dorset. I rang him to tell him of the find and he remembers climbing the ladder to wind the clock but can't recall signing his name on the beam.

There is one name signed in 1921 which was probably one of the builders as the school was opened 7 November 1923.

Mavis Edmonds

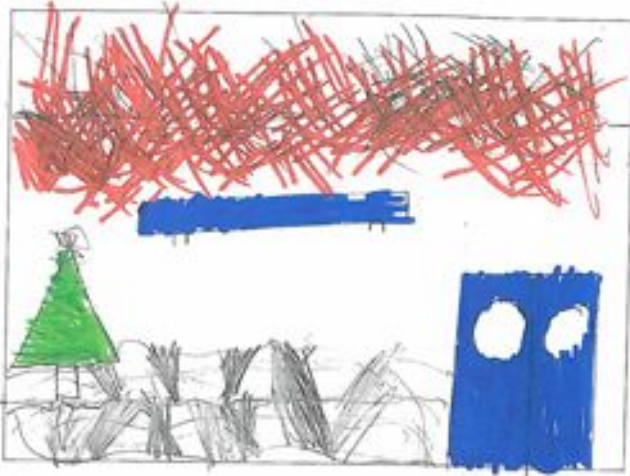

Signatures on the beam

The workings of the clock

Our School Hall

The school hall was flooding because a pipe burst and water started leaking. The roof started to bubble and then a hole was found in the roof. Builders started removing the roof and you could see 1930 signatures from people who built the school. The floor in the hall now is uneven and needs drying. Water started spreading through the shared area and through the kitchen.

We have now fitted new lights, new ceiling and are now drying the floor with dehumidifiers. Mrs Worth is going to have to buy a new piano because her old piano was out of tune.

Landulph Under 5's

Pre-School have had a busy start to the year welcoming both Freddie and Louca to the group. They are both settling in very well and enjoying all the activities on offer. The children really enjoyed visiting and feeding the lambs at Farmer Brown's and a big thank-you to him for his hospitality. We were also thrilled when Isaac's Granny came in to show the children some of her childhood toys. The children really enjoyed it.

On Friday 1 April we will be holding a Mad Hatter's Spring Party in the Memorial Hall. Under 5s 4-5pm and Over 5s 5-6pm. It will cost £3.50 per child and this includes a drink and a biscuit. There will be lots fun activities including; Pin the Grin on the cat, Design a Mad Hat, Easter Egg Competition, Easter Egg Hunt and a Disco! Please see the noticeboards for more information or contact Sarah on 840093.

We plan to hold a Summer Fayre on a Saturday 2 July from 10am – 2pm at the Memorial Hall This will be a Celebration of all that goes on in our community. We are hoping that all the local clubs will be represented and run a stall/game/activity. We intend to have a BBQ, lots of stalls, a raffle and games/activities. There will be something for everyone. We would appreciate donations of good quality toys, books, bric a brac etc We will also be looking for willing volunteers to man a stall, run a game or make some cakes. If you have any ideas, donations or would like to volunteer your services (or all of the above) please contact Carolyn (848983) or Sarah (840093). Please support and celebrate our community in our village Hall!

A QUALITY SERVICE - A SENSIBLE PRICE

Q: How much money did the quiz night raise?

A packed Memorial Hall was rocked by a surge of brain power on Friday 11 March when the first Battens Disease Village Quiz night raised £1,250. The money will go directly to research into this devastating condition. The evening was organised by Martin and Karen Freeman in memory of their daughter Katie who was a victim of the disease.

Around 20 teams struggled to find answers to questions ranging from the characters in Camberwick Green to Dendrophobia. But if the questions were challenging the teams were well up to the task with some remarkably high scores being posted. By the end of the evening it was still tight at the top with The Historians winning by just half a point.

A fine selection of beers from St Austell brewery and wines from Majestic ensured that everyone's whistle was truly wetted! The village was rather quiet on the morning after... Raffle prizes were donated by CP Coombe (Hamper), Trethorne Golf Club and St Austell Brewery. A very special prize was a beautifully made quilt by Carol, our very own post lady. Astonishing generosity was shown by all who attended, along with kind donations from those who could not make it.

Many thanks also to Mel and Nina for their sterling efforts throughout and for ensuring nobody went thirsty!

Watch this space for another quiz (possibly) in the Autumn.

Delivery of the newsletter is by willing volunteers. We are very grateful to them.

New volunteers are always welcome.

Cargreen Cancer Research Group

£4,075.00 was sent to Cancer Research UK to help in the fight against cancer from the Cargreen group in 2010. Considering the small size of the parish the committee is delighted to report this to the newsletter. This was the result of events that had taken place in the parish and included the hog roast and Cornish Jam concert at Tamara, a coffee morning and a Sunday lunch. We wish to say thank you for your support.

At the AGM Gaye Braund was re-elected as Chair, and Ivor Rogers as Treasurer and Lorraine Rogers as secretary.

It was decided to have a coffee morning on Saturday 7 May at Three Corner Meadow, between 10 am and 12 noon and, on 22 October, a 'Pie and Pub Games' night.

We look forward to your support again this year.

PILLATON PLAYERS : New Production - An Opportunity

The Pillaton Players have recently begun rehearsals for a production later this year (early November) - a specially written comedy drama based on an Edwardian household. The play is called Downturn at Upton and is a sort of spoof on Upstairs, Downstairs and Downton Abbey in which the servants try to enrich themselves at the expense of their employers. We still require people to perform the following roles:

Female roles

- The Cook (someone between 40 to 60 years old)
- A young servant and music hall artiste (someone between 17 to 25 years old). Note that an ability to sing is essential for this part.
- A young kitchen maid (someone between 18 to 25 years old).

Male Roles

- The Earl's son (someone between 20 to 30 years old)
- The Boot Boy (someone between 12 to 15 years old)

Previous acting experience is not essential. Being prepared to stand up in front of people and not worry about appearing silly is a great asset!!!

If you are interested or know anyone who may wish to be involved, please contact Chris Ley on 01579 351033 or email

Landulph Film Club's April Presentation

Close Encounters of the Third Kind

A major film by Steven Spielberg which has been “deemed culturally, historically and aesthetically significant by the US Library of Congress”.

Perhaps the most compelling of all science fiction films through the construct of its gripping plot. It tells the story of a point of intense UFO activity in the United States culminating in a visually stunning and friendly encounter between mankind and the visitors from other worlds.

Come to ‘Close encounters of the Third Kind’ which will be the climax to the current season and tell us what you would like to see in the next season commencing in September.

Landulph Good Companions

Having completed another year of highs and lows in their long history of over thirty years Landulph Good Companions are looking forward to another year's full programme. We won't dwell on the lows of the past year putting them behind us but one occasion deserves a special mention, the visit of John and Rosemary Heard, old friends of Harry's with whom they had shared concerts in days gone by. John is a violin virtuoso of national standing, whilst his wife Rosemary is a concert pianist, together they gave a scintillating performance to a spellbound audience. Delightful!! And with a promise of a return visit later in the year.

But the winds of change do blow as Harry, after thirty years with the club, twenty years as secretary now being in his ninetieth year with several ongoing health problems, has decided to hand in his badge as from the AGM in March. A brave volunteer has come forth however as Mavis Edmonds, who retires from the chair this year has offered to take over in partnership with Joan Worth.

All will be finalised at the AGM with a new Chairman Ted Webster and rearranged committee. New members to this honoured Club really welcomed.

Landulph Gardening Club

As I sat at my computer trying to think of something new to say for the March report for the newsletter, my screen saver came up with a daffodil. So daffodils are the main topic. We are very lucky to live in an area where daffodils are a regular part of the scenery, not only our own gardens but in the hedgerows also.

Marie Bersey, who is a regular winner of trophies at the Cornwall Garden Society spring show, was one of the speakers at the last meeting. She shared the secrets of growing daffodils for the show bench. Marie's father, Dan Du Plessis, was the moving force behind the first spring flower show at the newly formed Landulph Gardening Club in 1997. Dan lived at Marsh Farm and was a daffodil grower and breeder. Several of the daffodils he developed have names associated with the parish, e.g.

Landulph Footpaths Group

The Christmastime community walks made a modest profit on the catering. It was agreed at our recent meeting that we would distribute this with a donation to the Cargreen Yacht Club, in appreciation of the lovely venue they allowed us to use. It is to go to the Cadets who are working hard to raise money to pay for a racing dinghy. We also made a donation to our invaluable Landulph Newsletter.

Once again I raise the issue of litter, and continue to do my bit by often taking a plastic bag with me so that I can pick up litter on the verges of the lanes. However I had to go home for a large black bin bag to collect all the beer cans that had appeared under the hedge on footpath 1, the one up over Penyoke Hill. I filled the bag. Surely everyone is aware that there is free kerbside recycling – why spoil the countryside?
