LANDULPH NEWSLETTER

August 2009/ September 2009 No 22

Landulph Life and News

Your guide to what's happening in the area

Newsletter AGM

Tuesday September 29th 2009

It's a well known fact that unless there is a scandal in the offing, most people avoid an AGM.

We can't offer you much scandal but we do offer you a chance to meet all who are involved in producing the newsletter

It would be lovely if some of our readers could come on Tues 29th Sept to the School room at the Methodist church at 7.30pm and let us know what is good, what is never read and what should be in the newsletter.

Look forward to seeing you.

Parish Council Meeting 15 June 2009

Four councillors and four members of the public attended this 40 minute meeting. Was this a record for brevity?

Chairman Andrew Butcher noted the resignation of Olive Eggleston from parish council in view of the demands of her new role as a county councillor. Nominations for a replacement will be sought shortly.

Other agenda items covered old ground and were disposed of briskly.

Planning:

Council recommended refusal for: Listed Building Consent for conversion of redundant barn into two dwellings, and construction of two detached garages, and installation of septic tank, North Wayton, Landulph. Strutt & Parker, for Pentille estate.

(This was the second part of the application for this project, council having recommended refusal of the FULL application at its last meeting. On this occasion council was uncertain whether to consider only those factors appertaining to the structure and aesthetics of a listed building, or the total impact. After detailed discussion, council decided to repeat all the objections raised last month.)

Parish Council Meeting 20th July 2009

During public forum, newly-appointed Community Network Manager Simon Swales outlined his concepts for the future functions of the local group, comprising Saltash, Torpoint and nearby parishes, including Landulph. He didn't ask us to be patient until they all settle to their new duties, but I recommend forbearance....

Later in the formal meeting, a letter from a postgraduate student re Council's and community's views on renewable energy stimulated

He also thinks 'We need more affordable housing to bring in new blood, particularly young people working locally'. In his spare time Gerry and his wife Sue, who have two grown-up daughters, enjoy riding (they keep a pony), travel, walking and 'gentle country pursuits'. He is a member of Saltash Rotary.

Rose Cradick Tamara, Landulph, Saltash, PL12 6QQ.

Tel 01752 843257

You probably know Rose and husband Neil for the wonderful soft fruit grown on their land at Tamara, and for their enthusiastic support for the Landulph Gardening Club of which Neil is president and a founder-member.

Rose has lived in the parish for 28 years and was delighted when her parents, Bill and Nan Doughty, were able to move from Wales to Cargreen 14 years ago. Rose studied Art and PE in college, qualified as a PE teacher, and has maintained her interest in art ever since, continuing to draw and paint. Since pressure of work has reduced, she has time for wider interests and joined the Parish Council two years ago, because she felt that her deep roots in the parish enabled her to see what needed change, and what should be cherished.

She is particularly concerned that affordable housing should be made available to young parishioners.

Profiles of Roger Creagh-Osbourne, Gaye Braund and Terry West will appear in the next edition of the newsletter .

There is a vacancy on the parish council

Interested parishioners who would like more information about becoming a parish councillor should contact either the clerk or one of the council. Details are on the back of the diary insert in this newsletter.

Landulph Parish Councillor Profiles

Andrew Butcher Three Corner Meadow, Cargreen, PL12 6PA

Tel 01752 844302

Andrew is a retired dental practitioner and has lived in the parish for 37 years, initially in "Tamar", next to the phone box, before building his own home at the top end of Fore Street. For many years he has been actively involved in local organisations, including the British Dental Association, the Round Table, and Cargreen Yacht Club, and more recently as a First Responder, and committee member of Liskeard and District Fine Arts Society. Both he and his wife Jo are lively supporters of parish clubs and events, leaving Andrew some time for sailing too.

He joined the Parish Council in 2008, and was elected Chairman in May 2009. He clearly has a great affection for our local environment and community, and looks forward to contributing to their care as a councillor. As Chairman, his focus is on absorbing the recent local government changes (abolition of Cornish district Councils), and encouraging parishioners to connect more closely with their Parish Council. With that in mind, he may initiate a limited rescrutiny of the Parish Plan so that local needs and views are fully taken on board.

*****

Gerry Stevenson West Combe, Landulph Cross, PL12 6NE.

Tel: 01752 842889

Gerry is another councillor who arrived in the parish comparatively recently yet he is deeply concerned that the Cornish residents are not better represented. A former human resources director with Thompson Newspapers, he is a member of the Institute of Directors and continues to work part time as an advisor.

Recently appointed Council Vice-Chairman he is its representative on the Saltash Road Safety Committee and responsible for School Liason. He takes a deep interest in planning and is concerned that the new Cornwall Council has delegated too much power to council officers without the right of appeal to the elected Planning Committee. He also worries that small parishes are being sidelined. Landulph, he said, 'Has a tiny budget and few assets but we need to support our local organisations, particularly our very good school, which is important for the health of the parish.'

Council to address the need to formulate a view, and I leave it to you to work out how this led to discussion of plating the Hall roof with photovoltaic panels and selling electricity to the national grid.

Your Council needs your help... nearly two years ago it made a commitment to erect a slate plaque inscribed 'The Searle Family Memorial Field' as requested by the gentleman who donated the (cricket) field to the Council. Unfortunately the Council did not budget for purchase and inscription cost, and so far has been unable to find a free slab. So please contact Andrew Butcher if you can provide one.

Gaye mentioned that her attention (as footpaths representative) had been drawn to garden waste that appeared to have been tipped on to the beach between the pub and the yacht club. An interesting discussion followed, for it was not clear whose property had received the fly-tipping nor who had tipped it on the fly, (and therefore to whom Council should make representations), but in the interests of good citizenship it was decided that all resident in the affected area should be made aware of the problem by letter.

Gerry is our representative on the Saltash Road Safety Committee, and would welcome reports on dangerous road conditions either to him or to Saltash Town Council clerk at the Guildhall. Despite recent tar-and-chip treatments, potholes and dips continue to annoy, and Council will continue to press for repairs.

Having had no volunteers for the vacant post of parish councillor, Council decided to extend the period for applications until 21st September. This will be the date of the next meeting, unless planning applications oblige an August meeting.

At the September meeting, Council will open discussion on a revised Parish Plan, and urges as many parishioners as possible to attend, as the Plan will reflect their needs and hopes for future development in the parish. It will be a powerful reference point when higher levels of local government make decisions affecting Landulph.

Planning:

Council recommended approval for:

Change of use of agricultural land to amenity and equine use/livery. Mrs R Reep, Lower Stockadon, St Mellion.

Construction of porch. Mr J Hall, Landulph Rise, Landulph.

Meeting lasted 88 minutes. County Councillor Eggleston, Mr Swales and 6 members of the public attended.

Morton Macleod

Landulph School News July 09

We were delighted to welcome Andrew Cope, the author of the Spy Dog series of books, into school along with the real life Spy Dog! The pupils had a wonderful time listening to Andrew's talk about creative writing and then working on some creative writing with Andrew. The pupils also had an opportunity to have their Spy Dog books signed by Andrew.

During the last few weeks it has been wonderful to meet the twelve new reception pupils that are due to start with us in September. The pupils have been gaining in confidence during the weekly visits, called Learning Together, that have taken place over June and July and ensure a smooth transition into school life.

Sadly the Class 3 teacher Miss Marshall has decided to move on and we shall all be sad to see her leave. Having replied to and sorted 59 applications we are now looking forward to getting to know her replacement, Mr Chapman, who has just been appointed, and starts with us in September.

Marie Beaven Smith School Secretary

New Members - Landulph Short Mat Bowls Club

If you want to know more please telephone Val Oatham on 842560.

Memorial Hall News

The Hall Committee would like to thank all those involved in the Big Breakfast and the May Day celebration; both groups donated profits to the Hall. These events not only raised much needed funds for the hall but brought villagers and friends together within the community.

As many are aware the Snooker Club closed recently due to lack of numbers. It was decided at the recent committee meeting that the empty room should be brought back into use as soon as possible. It was agreed that the room would need a complete refurbishment. It will be converted into a lounge with comfortable chairs and perhaps a home cinema projector; it could then be used for informal meetings, coffee mornings, a quiet room at weddings, parties and an entertainment area for the many Brownies groups that stay at the hall.

Any donations from groups or individuals given to the hall will be put towards this project so please keep fundraising.

Memorial Hall Committee

Landulph Summer Fun Day!

To everyone's regret and especially our own we had to cancel the Fun Day on Sunday! Those who experienced the day's downpour will understand why! While ahead the weather forecast had predicted showers, which might have been tolerable, at the eleventh hour it became obvious that prolonged and quite heavy rain would fall - and it did! To cancel the event at such a late stage was a difficult decision but events proved it to be the right one. Only those with feathers and webbed feet would have been able to attend and take part!

A massive thank you must go to everyone who helped and supported us and we are so sorry that all of your help was in vain. We also apologise to everyone who was disappointed that it didn't happen - we certainly were!

Despite the Fun Day being rained off we still managed to raise over £1200 for Katie Freeman and thank you for everyone's support.

Mel Bennett and Nina Armstrong

+++Stop Press+++ Have-a-Go-in-a-Gig-Day +++ Stop Press+++

Men, women, boys and girls of all ages are invited to Have a Go in a Gig at the Cargreen Yacht Club on Sunday 13 September. This is a first step towards possibly forming a Gig Club based in Cargreen.

Details of the day's programme will be announced shortly but will include rowing in the Weir Quay gig as well as shoreside events. The programme will be arranged around the midday high tide.

For further information contact James Jermain (Tel: 01752 847546) or Felicity Silvester (Tel: 01579 343341)

Reality TV comes to Cargreen?

A TV company has recently contacted people who live in the parish to assess the interest in reopening a closed pub as a community pub. They would, with the owners consent, help the community to run the closed pub for a month having first set up a 'board' of directors and trained staff in all aspects of running a pub. This was to be filmed for a TV series.

The company will not be progressing with this project after discussion with the owners.

Drawn to the Valley Group of Artists Open Studio event 29th August to 6th September 2009

The Drawn to the Valley group was formed in 2003 by the artists themselves, mainly as a support network but also in order to promote the Tamar Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and to contribute to the regeneration of the local economy through selling exhibitions and Open Studios. There are now over 160 members, ranging from painters and printmakers to ceramicists, sculptors, calligraphers, jewellers and textile artists. Membership is open to anyone living and/or working in the Tamar Valley. Parishioners from Cargreen, Landulph and the surrounding area are already members and will be participating in the Open Studio event along with over 50 other artists.

The public is welcomed into private working studios and homes and other venues to meet the artists, see their art and chat about their inspirations, aspirations and processes. Further details can be found on the website www.drawntothevalley.co.uk

Landulph Gardening Club

Tranquil, informal, green and full of trees were comments used to describe the gardens of Highgrove house, home of the Duke of Cornwall, in Gloucestershire by members of the gardening club. Some had been expecting a more formal garden and were surprised at the relaxed feel; the visit was enjoyed by 22 members in June.

July saw another visit to a much smaller but equally informal woodland garden at Pinsla nursery near Bodmin.

Members are asked to meet at Landulph Memorial Hall Car Park at 6pm on August 12th for a Garden Safari to Club Members gardens.

Dr Paul Gorham, North Wayton Farmhouse, Landulph.

Across the country, at numerous locations, an estimated 2 million people joined their neighbours for the Big Lunch on Sunday 19th July.

I hope they all had as much fun as I did at the Landulph one. Around 80 people gathered inside the Landulph Memorial Hall, sheltering from the unseasonable weather and bringing with them a huge variety of foods for their lunch.

It was a chance to eat, drink and chat with friends, family and neighbours. People of all ages came together. There was a sweet stall run by and for local children, as well as art activities and games to keep them occupied. One child even offered Tai Kwon Do lessons. An honesty bar was set up to raise funds for the hall's new 'community room'.

Editors comment

Well done, we all enjoyed it and it was great to meet with neighbours and actually sit and chat rather than just waving when cars pass in the lane.

Please make it an annual event.

Jo Butcher

Landulph in War Time

Reporters from the Landulph newsletter are busy talking to many local residents and others who have memories of Landulph in war time.

'Don't panic' if you think you have not been visited or interviewed yet! You will be. We have a 'cunning plan' that will see the light of day in the New Year.

Interesting memories are being committed to paper and in the fullness of time this will be made into a booklet.

The newsletter team

Congratulations to Shaun and Wendy for their rhubarb crumble which was judged as the best dish of the day. They won a prize of family membership at the National Trust. Two sets of runners-up each won a bag of locally grown potatoes, kindly donated by Richard Brown.

The big lunch is set to become an annual event, so please have a think about how you might contribute to making next years event even more successful...if you could fix the weather so it could be held outside, that'd be great, thanks! Big thank-you to those who made it happen...Andy, Karen, Greg, Phil, Jordi, Jackie, Brad, Adi and all the people who helped to wash up and tidy away afterwards... it really was the best Sunday I'd had in ages.

Cargreen Cancer ResearchUK fundraising Committee

A sunny morning at the end of May was the stimulus for the fantastic sum of £420 to be raised for Cancer ResearchUK. Many thanks to all who came to the coffee morning, donated goods for sale or gave donations.

The next fundraising event will be an Auction of promises in November. This is not for several months so there will be plenty of time to decide what you can promise. ## Peninah Kambua Kinyamasyo Barrett.

Kevin Barrett would like to thank all those who attended Peninah's funeral after her tragic and untimely death in February 09 after a two year battle against cancer. In addition, he would like especially to thank all those who generously gave money towards the construction costs of a Bore hole to supply fresh water to a rural community in Kenya.

The community in question is at Ngunni, South Kitui in Kenya's Eastern Province and is where Peninah originally came from. This region is semi-arid and water is always in desperately short supply. Despite grinding poverty in the area and the fact that Peninah had lived in a more western environment for many years, home was always the family farm at Ngunni.

A total of £1,122.97 was raised which will go some way towards the total cost of construction which will be somewhere in the region £3,000. However, the donations made are a definite start and shows the high regard Peninah was held in. All going well Kevin hopes to complete the project towards the end of 2010. Further updates will be forthcoming next year and anyone who would like to further involve themselves further in this very deserving project can contact Kevin via his email:

Matua@topmail.co.uk.

Again, many thanks, it is much appreciated.

Kevin Barrett.
