Landulph Parish Council

Parish Council backs Spaniards move

Moves to have the Crooked Spaniards Inn listed as an Asset of Community Value were supported unanimously by the Parish Council at its meeting on 16 September. As reported elsewhere, an action group of parishioners is applying for the listing to give local residents time to raise a bid if the pub is put up for sale. Owing to a short time window, it was decided to leave the matter in the hands of The Society for the Preservation and Enhancement of the Crooked Spaniards and its Surrounding Conservation Area (SPECSSCA)

Action demanded on potholes

Following complaints by a number of parishioners during the public forum session, the Council agreed to approach the highways department (again!) to get action on the many deep and sometimes dangerous and damaging potholes in village roads and lanes.

Particular hot spots for pots include Church Lane and Coombe Lane towards the Yacht Club. A list was given to our County Councillor, Daniel Pugh. Encouragingly, a member of the County Highways staff appeared in the village the following week and work is promised.

You couldn't make it up!

Flooding has long been a problem in the road by the Landulph School playing field. A recent inspection of the drainpipe under the road by Mike Kitney revealed that a service utility pipe had been placed inside the storm drain taking up almost the entire diameter. Any solid matter in the run off could block it completely. It was reported that run-off from the Long Orchard industrial units was also causing problems. Daniel Pugh was asked to add these to the Highways work list.

Dull but important

A survey of the playing fields at Penyoke has revealed a number of problems which were gone through in detail. Councillors David Peck and Mac Armstrong agreed to look at the list and undertake the urgent work. Jane Espig volunteered to repaint the rocking horse. The council reviewed its standing orders in preparation to putting them on the new Parish Council website.

Planning

An outline proposal to build a house for a horticultural worker on land at Tamara was approved subject to a Horticultural tie.

Birthday raises funds for RNL

Reg Rice would like to send many thanks to all neighbours and friends who contributed £400 for this worthy cause on the occasion of his 90th birthday. Congratulations Reg!

Obituary – Captain James “Jim” Clouting

Jim died in August aged 85. Those who knew him will remember him with pleasure and admiration. Many in the parish will not know him for it is many years since he lived in Lane End Cottage, but Landulph was always close to his heart after his move to the outskirts of Callington.

Thanks to Jim the cricket field is now owned by the parish Council. He had a distinguished career as a Merchant Navy captain and while at sea he heard that the cricket field was to be sold (possibly as arable land) so promptly arranged through Roger Wratten to buy the field himself and thus secure its future for sport. In 2000 he donated the field to the parish with provisos that it be retained for public use and that it be named after the Searle family who had been among his closest friends.

As treasurer of the Cargreen Yacht Club, he was also a prime mover and guarantor in the Yacht Club's purchase of its present site. There are other more personal examples of Jim's generosity to individuals in distress, and it was typical of the man that the public were unaware of his actions.

We've written this note to acknowledge that Landulph is a better place because of Jim, and say our belated thanks.

Reg Rice & Morton McLeod

The Clouting Family wish to thank all those who attended his cremation at Glynn Valley for their support at this sad time.

Register now for EU elections

Cornwall Council is calling on local people to register now to make sure they can have their say and vote in the European Parliamentary elections taking place in May 2014.

Electoral registration forms are being posted out on 1 October to all households in Cornwall and a new Electoral Register created. This list will then be used as the basis for the European Parliamentary elections in May 2014. The register will be published on 17 February 2014 and only people who are on the register will be able to vote. The forms contain the details of all the people who are currently registered to vote at that address. If none of the details on the form have changed, the householder can either sign the form and return it in the pre-paid envelope provided or register electronically by: phone, on line or by text message. Registering electronically is the quickest, easiest and cheapest (for Cornwall) method.

If any details on the form have changed it should be amended and returned by post or by hand to the Cornwall Council Offices or one-stop shop. Cornwall asks that forms are returned as soon as they are received to avoid the costly necessity of sending out reminders. Providing the information on the form is required by law.

Anyone who does not receive a form is asked to contact the Council's electoral registration team on 03001231115.

Introducing our new Parish Clerk

As we announced in the last Newsletter, our former Parish Clerk, Chris Harris has retired. The Parish now welcomes a new clerk, Katherine Williams. Parishioners had a chance to meet her for the first time at the September Council meeting when she began to get to grips with the work of the Council and local issues.

Katherine has told the Newsletter: 'I have worked within Local Government for a number of years, and I think it will be interesting for me, as Parish Clerk, to be in a position where I see action being taken at a very local level.'

'I love living in Cornwall - I have lived in Saltash for many years and still live just one street away from where I was born. I have two teenage children, who keep me busy as a Mum's taxi service! I also play the Flugelhorn in various bands and orchestras. I am "learning the ropes" of the job from the very experienced retiring Clerk and look forward to getting involved in the Parish.'

Anyone wanting to contact Katherine should email: landulph-clerk@live.co.uk, or tel: 01752 240541

Local Christmas Cards

The following table lists those families who elected not to send local Christmas cards last year, but instead gave a donation to the Salvation Army Children's Christmas party. If I don't hear to the contrary, it will be assumed that they wish to continue for 2013. I will collect donations during December. £345 was sent to the Salvation Army last Christmas in lieu of local Christmas cards.

Wetter Out Than In

The second Cargreen YC annual Raft Race attracted eight motley craft crewed mainly by Cadets. Built of anything from ladders and plastic oil drums to ironing boards and chiffon, the 'boats' fought strong winds, torrential rain and dirty tricks to cover a course in the entrance to The Coombe. Most crews fell in at some stage but this was no problem because virtually the whole course was in wading depth anyway.

Winners were Jonno & Ryan's Raft followed by Holy Ship skippered by Elliott. After Broomstick Babes had been disqualified Hoof Hearted was promoted to third. Amy's Hover Honeyz won the Best Dressed Raft and Crew award and Broomstick Babes won a special award for their 'ladies' boudoir' on a canoe.

Battens Quiz returns

The always popular quiz in aid of research into Battens disease returns to the Landolph memorial Hall on Saturday 23 November. This evening of fun, laughter and a bit of intellectual challenge will have a similar format to previous years, with teams of six answering questions of challenging but not impossible difficulty across a wide range of subjects. Full details will be appearing on parish notice boards very soon and tickets will be on sale in October, so keep your eyes peeled and put the date in your diary

Tuesday Afternoon Art Group

A group of aspiring artists meets at the Rectory Room from 2pm to 5pm every Tuesday.

We are interested in developing our artistic skills. All abilities are catered for and the motivation is by the discipline of putting time aside to pursue this interest.

We don't have a leader but discuss what topics or techniques to practice as a group, occasionally inviting a professional to take a workshop. The session is informal and inexpensive at £2.50p. First meeting this autumn October 8th. Come and give it a try!

Landulph Festival of Music and Arts

As we go to print the Festival is in full swing. A full report will appear in the next edition of Landulph News. Thank you to Trish Langdon for the mediaeval-themed festival front cover of this edition. A great time was had by everyone at the Mediaeval Banquet on Saturday 28 September

Landulph Memorial Hall

Next Generation moves closer

The Next Generation project is slowly moving forward; we have just received a donation of £500 from the Norman Family Trust and have more applications in the pipe line. The plan is to start the work in December. If any group or organisation has equipment stored in the store room at the annex or the old snooker room please can you arrange to move it before the beginning of December?

After the summer break all organisations are starting their meetings at the hall again. Please support them. Landulph is very fortunate in having a variety of clubs and groups that meet and we are always pleased that they use the Memorial Hall for their meetings. Carolyn Pickard will shortly be selling raffle tickets for a grand raffle and Felicity Wyman has volunteered to run her Big Breakfast and Market again on 30 November. Funds from both these events will go to the Next Generation project with additional funds from the Big Breakfast going to the Cornish Air Ambulance service.

Web sites and the parish: I am aware there has been talk about the proliferation of websites in the village. Landulph Memorial Hall is setting up its own (many thanks to James North who is in the process of creating it) so that we can put details of how to book the hall on it and make freely available, contact details of those organisations that use the hall.

The good thing about each group having its own site is that it can manage its own content as it thinks fit.

I hope that all of the village web sites will put links to each other on their sites.

To date I have found the following on ours:

Another Burns' Night Celebration!

Brush up your Scottish Dancing skills and join us once more for an unforgettable night of celebration.

Saturday 25 January 2014 is the date to put in your diary and watch the Notice Boards for more information. This event was a runaway success the last time, so if you want to be sure of a ticket give us a call. There will be an application form in the next issue to book your tickets. Places are limited due to leaving enough space for dancing.

This fund-raising event will be shared by the Newsletter and the Memorial Hall who are raising funds for the Next Generation Project.

SOS - Bagpiper needed to pipe in the haggis.

A play for Christmas in Landulph

Charlie and Toby are feeling low and why shouldn't they? It's Christmas Day and they are serving time in prison. But why shouldn't they have a Merry Christmas? What's stopping them from creating Christmas around them? Nothing: so they set off on their festival of carols, Claus and custody. Join them on a fantastical adventure through Dickens, pantomime, and musical Xmas dinner.

See them as they build a wonderfully Merry Christmas around themselves with songs, snowmen and lots of laughs in this truly festive show.

Written and performed by Daniel Richards and Ciaran Clarke the play is presented by the Near-ta Theatre Company from Falmouth, directed by Simon Harvey and will be performed at the Landulph Memorial Hall on 19 December at 7.00 pm. Tickets £8 (child £6) from John Hall, Tel: 01752 841598

New Head takes over at Landulph School

We are delighted to welcome our new Head of School, Mrs Best to Landulph School.

The coming months will see more changes as the school joins with Saltash.net to create a Multi Academy Trust, the process is lengthy but progressing well and we hope to be part of the Multi Academy Trust at the latest by early 2014.

We have also welcomed five new pupils into reception this year and an additional three pupils into year six. We are all looking forward to getting to know them and their families in another exciting year at Landulph School.

The school will be joining in the successful Landulph Festival of Music and Arts, and the pupils have already completed an Art workshop with Jane Espig creating medieval shields and banners for the Festival Mediaeval Banquet. We are also looking forward to a Story Telling workshop on Thursday 3 October which will take place during the school afternoon for the pupils and at 3:15pm for adults. Please contact the school if you wish to join us.

Our annual Harvest Festival assembly is on Friday 18 October at 9.15am. You are all welcome to attend this event which will be followed by a coffee morning. The money raised from this will be split between the PTA and sponsoring a pupil at Venkateshwar International school in India which is our link School. The harvest festival donations will be given to Saltash food bank 'feeding local people in crisis'.

The school celebrates its 90th birthday on the current site in November. We would love to hear from anyone who has any memories or photographs of the school during the last 90 years. We would also welcome into school anyone who would like to share with the pupils their memories of their time at Landulph School .

This year we are again taking part in the SS Nicholas and Faith Christmas Tree Festival. For this to be a success we require the loan of an artificial tree and indoor lights from Monday 4 November to until Saturday 14 December. These will be returned to you in time for your own Christmas celebrations. If you can help with either of these items please contact the school on 01752 845572 and ask for Marie.

Fête accomplis

A huge thank you to the many people who helped in numerous different ways to make the Landulph Fête a resounding success despite the weather. It was marvellous to welcome so many families with young children, and we all squashed in to the church and enjoyed a great afternoon, even with live music. Proceeds of the event were considerably up on last year – raising just under £1,000 for the Church Fabric Fund. Thank you everyone!

Time to give thanks for the harvest

Harvest Festival is traditionally the time when we give thanks for a successful harvest of food from the land – when ‘all is safely gathered in’. In this country we have so much in abundance, it is good to give thanks for the work of our farmers but also to remember those who perhaps don’t have enough to eat. On Sunday 13 October at 11.15am there will be a Harvest Festival service in Landulph Church to which you are most warmly welcomed. It will be followed by a bring & share lunch in the Rectory Room. If you would like an idea of what to bring to share, please contact Amy Cloake, Tel : 01752 842005.

Thanks to Good Samaritans

Alan and Christine Roberts of Hodders Way would like to thank Juliette, Nigel and Jenny for all the help they gave to our visitors from Scotland when their car broke down on the 23rd July. Our visitors were really impressed by the help given to them; in particular getting road side help for a maiden in distress from Hatt Garage and returning with provisions on a really hot day. Our visitors returned to Scotland by car two days later with the opinion that Cargreen has a very helpful community. Thanks again.

Gardening club back from summer recess

During August we ran a plant stall at the parish church which did well despite sopping rain. Thank you to those who provided plants and produce. Our September speaker gave an informative talk on some of Cornwall's garden history and development.

Coming up On Wednesday 9 October at 7.30pm there will be a talk on 'The Beauty of Leaves'. Plenty of scope there, although you may not look forward to sweeping them up! On Wednesday 13 November the subject will be 'Adventures with Fancy Foliage' followed by the AGM. The pre-Christmas supper at the Hall will be on Wednesday 4 December and not the second Wednesday as normal.

We look forward to seeing members and visitors to any of these events.

Jen Hambly

What next at the Spaniards?

The Crooked Spaniards Inn may be looking ever more derelict and moribund, but behind the scenes a lot has been happening. Since the last newsletter we have heard that the appeal by owners Sandra and Tony Arnold has been dismissed. However, this is not necessarily the end of the story.

What has happened Planning Inspector, Mike Fox rejected the appeal on 21 August. In a 23-paragraph statement he emphasised the importance of the site within an AONB and Conservation area. He said any development required high standards of design. He concluded the proposals would be 'out of scale with the domestic and tight knit character and appearance of the Conservation area', and would not 'preserve or enhance the Conservation Area'. He described the development as 'inappropriate', 'alien' of 'excessive height', 'stark and unremitting'.

On the other hand he said the refurbishment of the pub would be 'a positive outcome' and did not reject the possibility of the site being developed sympathetically at a later stage. 'Some form of enabling development to the north of the pub is necessary for the scheme viability'.

What's happening now In preparation for any future proposals for the site, a group of more than 30 parishioners has formed a community action group called, rather clumsily, the Society for the Preservation and Enhancement of the Crooked Spaniards and its Surrounding Conservation Area (SPECSSCA). Contact Janet Stone janetlkemish@btinternet.com The immediate purpose of this group is to get the site listed as an Asset of Community Value (ACV). The principle advantage of this is that, should the pub come up for sale, completion can be postponed for six months to allow time for the group to put together a bid of their own from their own, or other resources. However, the listing does not compel the owners to sell to any such group. At its September meeting the Parish Council gave its support to the group.

Chairman Gerry Stephenson commented, ' This may help to get the pub reopened which is what most of us want'.

What will happen next SPECCSCA is making preparations to get the site listed as an ACV at the beginning of October. The inspector's report allowed room for the Arnolds to put together an application for a more sympathetic, smaller and lower development and it is anticipated that this may appear before too long. What is certain is that the sadly deserted building will remain closed for the foreseeable future.

Badminton / Table Tennis Players Required!!

I am thinking of starting up a badminton and / or table tennis club on a weekday evening in the Memorial Hall.

If there are any keen players out there who would like to attend, please let me know, and we can have arrange a meeting to get the ball rolling.

Ten days of local walks

Cotehele is holding its annual Walking Festival from Saturday 26 October to Sunday 3 November. There are walks each day ranging from 2 to 9 miles on a variety of paths, lanes and tracks. Most start from Cotehele Quay car park at a variety of times and explore the wider estate and beyond. Please see our website www.nationaltrust.org.uk/cotehele or ring 01579 351346 for more details, or collect a leaflet with full details from Cotehele Reception. On 27 October there is a walk organised by Guide Dogs for the Blind, and on Thursday 31 October there is a guided walk around Cotehele Garden.

Stock up for Christmas!

Come and meet your friends for a cuppa, bring something unwanted (or maybe specially made – cakes, biscuits, jam?) and buy some treasure!

A bring-and-buy sale is being held in the Rectory Room on 2 November in aid of the Landulph Church Fabric Fund. The winning card from the Christmas Card competition, launched at the Parish Fête, will be available to buy, and there will be loads of other goodies. See you there!
