Your guide to what's happening in the area

Editorial

The Newsletter Group is a wee bit thin on the ground having lost Mavis and Reg recently and with Morton due to retire in the autumn. We would very much like to attract two or three new members, ideally including at least one with a long association with the parish. Having had a good series of special features in the past, e.g. the supplements about the pub, the Old School, and the articles about long-term residents, and of course the Landulph at War booklet, we need some stimulating new ideas (whether or not you join the group). And if you'd like to send us your articles or sketches, we'd be delighted.

YOUR NEWSLETTER NEEDS YOU. Come join us!

Landulph Parish Council

February 2012

The Meeting started with a welcome for the Community Network Area Manager who went on to speak about the changes to the planning process brought about by the new Localism Bill.

The details of the Bill have yet to be finalised so the place of Parish Plans and the new Neighbourhood development plans were still shrouded in mystery.

An email had been received from the County Footpath Officer following his inspection of footpath 4 where there had been the recent addition of a stile and the aftermath of the Environment Agency work on the Penyoke sea wall. Matters were left in his hands.

A request from the new Kidz Club for funding was approved to come from the old Youth Club funds. The Clerk reminded members that the account book had still to be brought up to date by the current 'trustees' and they had yet to sign to release the funds.

Councillor Stevenson drew attention to dangerous dog notices that had been reported appearing in the Parish Notice Boards. It was decided that there would be no policy for dealing with unsigned and unattributed notices.

The annual grant towards the community burial ground at Landulph was approved.

The planning meeting that followed approved the three plans that were presenting, two without comment the third involving the construction of a manege adjacent to the stables at Long Orchard stables/business park had a note reaffirming the application that stated its use was for personal and not business use.

March 2012

If the February meeting was a tiny bit dull, the public seemed to be convinced that the March meeting would be more so as no one attended.

The Chairman reported his attendance at the Cornwall Association of Local Councils AGM at County hall in Truro in order to hear a member of the planning department speak on Local Development Plans and the County Core Structure Plan. There were pilots in place for the former and the latter was still (just) in consultation. So no news and a wasted 105 mile trip for the evening!

The Clerk was concerned over the management of the old Youth Club funds by the Parish Council as far as auditors would be concerned. It was agreed that the best way forward was to bring them into the Parish accounts and ring fence them for youth projects.

It was agreed to purchase some new football post bases so that the current wear on the ground at the goal mouths might be mitigated. The Chairman had been in contact with the suppliers for more information.

The plans at the planning meeting brought wry smiles from Councillors who, when confronted by the slick presentation for a house extension drawn up by a local architectural firm, realised that the photograph accompanying the plan was of the wrong house!

It is to be hoped that the builders do not make the same mistake!

Of more concern was a letter from a member of the public alleging abuse from two horse riders and further alleging that these riders had livery at an identified property. Cornwall Council had advised the letter's author to contact the Police and this was endorsed by the Parish Council with the Clerk to contact the PCSO and the Cornwall Council enforcement team since there was no planning permission for livery on the identified property.

Councillors had also experienced horses and riders in the dark without any lights and little in the way of reflective clothing on either horse or rider.

Dull Not quite!

Methodist News

Landulph Methodist Church celebrate their 138th Anniversary on Sunday May 13 at 3.00 pm. The service will be taken by Mrs Anita Nicholson. Tea will be served in the schoolroom following the service.

Please note the June Soup and Sweet Lunch will be a week later than normal on Wed Jun 13 at 12 noon. April and May lunches will be on the usual first Wednesday.

The Annual Car Treasure Hunt takes place on Saturday June 16 with a staggered start from the Car Park at 5.00 pm. A buffet supper will be served at the end; anyone not able to take part in the Treasure Hunt is always welcome to join us for the supper at 7 00 pm.

Mavis Edmonds

A Memorial Service for Mr Harry Pryce will be held at Landulph Methodist Church on Wednesday 9 May at 2 00 pm. Everyone welcome.

Landulph Memorial Hall

Picnic in the Park: Saturday July 7 we are planning a delayed celebration of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. As we think a significant number of locals will be away at the Jubilee weekend we decided to mark the event in July with a "Picnic in the Park". More details about this will be in the next edition of the newsletter.

Apologies: I am sorry about the inconvenience caused by the projector being away for repair; Diane is doing her best to sort the problem. Thank you Diane.

Under 5's: provisions of a new facility. It is planned to have an open event soon with a display of the plans.

Landulph Memorial Hall AGM

I once went on a course to learn how to write articles for newsletters. The first few words had to grab the attention of the reader. I am struggling for words. This is because I am writing about an AGM.

I had hoped that as the former reporter of the parish council news attended the AGM of Landulph Memorial Hall he may be persuaded to write one of his highly entertaining pieces. No such luck.

So ... the usual things were said, more or less the same people elected, a few resigned and plans were made for next year.

The formal minutes are available on application to the secretary.

Diamond Jubilee Mugs

Can you help? If every adult living in the parish contributed £2.00 we would be able to give each child (0-16yrs) in the parish a commemorative mug. There is an envelope in the newsletter for your donation. Please give to Sue Wright, 1 Coombe Lane Cargreen who is co-ordinating the fundraising.

Any question or queries please

Food Hygiene Course at Landulph Memorial Hall

Cornwall Council have offered to run an "Award in Food Safety in Catering" Course at Landulph Memorial Hall. It is recommended that a person or organisation handling, preparing or serving food to the general public has this Certificate.

Running the course at the Hall would avoid travel to Liskeard and we could run it on a day (weekends, evenings, daytime) and at a time (all in one session or over a number of sessions) to suit ourselves. The course is commercially recognised, it is valid for 3 years and costs £40 per person. The only requirement Cornwall Council has is that we have at least ten people able to attend the course. Anyone is welcome to attend, they do not need to live in Landulph

Please contact Diane Gregory (01752 845423) or e.mail digregory@live.co.uk if you or a member of your Group would be interested. Thank You.

Are you too missing the Landulph Festival? The Calstock Arts Centre has a regular programme of live evening entertainments in their licensed premises. See www.calstockarts.org for further details

KIDZ CLUB

At the February Kidz Club we learnt the latest keep fit craze of Zumba with our guest instructor Lizzie, who put everyone through their paces with a fast-moving, energetic routine with lots of music which the children loved. We then continued to keep fit with circuit training. After a break there was the opportunity to play more traditional games of table-tennis (on loan from the Memorial Hall), table-top football (kindly donated by Peter and Marina Anderson) and magnetic darts. It was encouraging to see that these games were very popular with the more modern electronic Wii being put to one side!

In March we welcomed another guest instructor, Mr. Chapman from Landulph School, who showed the children different martial arts and self defence skills. There were lots of shouts of "Kia" as the children enjoyed practicing their newly acquired moves. Afterwards in the old Snooker Room again table-tennis and the table-top football were popular choices together with air hockey, which a parent had kindly lent the Club. We also had Wii games available for the excellent Wii players amongst the group.

With the Easter holidays, there is no Club in April, but dates for the diary for the next few months are Saturday 19 May, 16 June and 7 July. Please contact Carolyn (848983) or Diane (845423) for further details.

News from Landulph School

Your local school needs you!

Landulph School has vacancies for parent and community governors to join the school's governing body.

Please consider joining us, some information is detailed below for you and further information is available from the school office on 01752 845572.

Through their representation of the wider school community (this includes the parents, school staff and other members of that community), governors help their school improve and provide the best possible education for the pupils.

A good governor has many skills and qualities including:-

An ability to respect confidentiality.

An interest in education.

Communication skills.

An ability to absorb information.

Tact and diplomacy.

An ability to work as part of a team.

A willingness to give your time.

A commitment to equal opportunities.

An open mind.

A willingness to undertake training.

Festival of Music

The local schools of St Mellion and St Dominic are joining us for a festival of music. Rehearsals are well under way for the concert that will take place in Landulph Memorial Hall on Wednesday 23 and Friday 25 May starting at 6pm. Tickets will be available from the school in May; keep on eye on the school notice board for further information

Cross Country news

The last league race of the season was held at Bush Farm on Friday 2 March. Although the weather was kind, the terrain was tough with patches of very thick mud. That was no problem for the Landulph team after training on Paradise Lane!

Bridie led the year 3/4 girls' team home, with her best result of the year. At the time of writing we believe that we may have won the first team prize for the year but need to await official confirmation.

Cargreen Cancer Research

At the recent AGM Gaye Braund was elected as Chairperson, Ivor Rogers as Treasurer and Lorraine Rogers as sSecretary.

£1440 was sent in last year to Cancer ResearchUK from the Cargreen Group. Gaye in her report thanked all who had helped raised such a good sum of money. This included proceeds from Liskeard Bowls. The Captain, Mike Kitney of Landulph, had chosen Cancer ResearchUK as his charity for the year.

Plans for this coming year include a coffee morning at Three Corner Meadow Cargreen on Saturday May 26 (TBC) at 10am. Bric a brac is wanted for the white elephant stall, and can be collected.

The big autumn fundraising event will be an afternoon tea with a silent auction on October 28.

We look forward to your support.

Thank you.

Strawberries at Tamara

Strawberries have been grown at Tamara since the late '40s, firstly outdoors for a four to six week period in June and July. Then in 1972 we moved to growing an early crop in polytunnels which would have been planted in January and picked in early May. These would have been followed by the crop which was grown outdoors.

By 1991 we were experiencing difficulties in growing the same crop in the soil year after year and changed to the table top system. The table tops were and still are 1.5m high trellis on top of which sits a 1m bag of peat (similar to a Tomato bag). This makes the presentation of the fruit a lot easier for the pickers and for identifying pests and diseases, though the local blackbirds and squirrels still give us problems!

We have now changed to a new substrate called cocoa peat

(coconut husks) which is more environmentally friendly and gives us the opportunity to use the bag more than once.

We now plant cold store plants in June, which we pick in the autumn; the plants are over wintered and picked again the following spring.

Due to our mild climate we suffer from lack of winter chill. We compensate for this by lighting the tunnels at night in the winter, hence the Tamara illuminations!

Since the mid '90s, the creation of new varieties now allows us to pick continuously from April to early November, which has lengthened the season from six weeks during the '40s to eight months today.

To complement the strawberries we grow raspberries, blueberries, blackberries & cherries which are all marketed locally through shops and wholesalers.

100 Club

This is an easy way to support the Memorial Hall. You don't have to make cakes or help put up tables, you merely have to find £12.00 to give to Gaye Braund, the Treasurer of the Memorial hall committee, and she will add your name to the other 94 people who already belong. This £12.00 will enable you to take part in a monthly draw for prizes of £20, £14 and £9 each month.

Interested? Phone 01752 84774 for more details.

Lambing season – so far so good

Livestock farmers, especially those with sheep, have been on tenterhooks in recent months because of the appearance in northern Europe last autumn of a new viral disease which caused sickness in cattle, and a few months later was linked to abortions and foetal deformities in sheep, goats and cattle. The disease is now known to be caused by a virus hitherto unknown in Europe but related to a group which occurs in Asia, Africa and Australia. It has been named Schmallenberg virus after the German town in which it was first identified.

The first British cases occurred earlier this year in the south-east of England, affecting lambs. In Landulph, lambing is still in progress as we go to print, but it is a relief to report that none of the three farms interviewed has been affected by this latest worry. So as we drive or walk through the “pretty” landscape that makes rural living such a privilege, let’s spare a thought for the farmers who tend it.

The Ancient Port of Landulph

Today the area between Neal Point and Parson's Quay seems very tranquil except for the distant rumble of traffic on the Tamar Bridge. But in the 15th Century this area would have been a hive of activity, as Landulph was a centre for ship building and a departure place for Pilgrims.

The Manor of Landulph came into the possession of the Courtenay Family - Earls of Devon - in the 14th Century, and Edward Courtenay is thought to have developed Landulph as a port before his death in 1419.

Landulph is first recorded as a port supplying ships to transport troops in the war against France in 1417, and there are records of a least another five being built between 1432 and 1452, with the largest being 120 tons.

The shrine of St James in the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela in Galicia, north west Spain had become famous as the home of the remains of the apostle James, and was one of the most famous pilgrimage centres of the Middle Ages along with Rome and Jerusalem. Ships full of Pilgrims departed from Landulph, such as the Mary of Landhelp which left in 1434 with 60 Pilgrims on board.

Landulph Church is thought to have been rebuilt around 1420, which corresponds with the development of the port and the need for a larger church in which the the Pilgrims could pray before they set off on their arduous journey.

The last recorded departure of a pilgrim ship from Landulph is 1456, after which the port must have declined.

The Manor of Landulph remained in the Courtenay family until 1538 when Henry VIII executed Henry Courtenay and seized his estates, giving the Manor of Landulph to the Duchy of Cornwall. The arms of the Courtenay family are still displayed in the Church, through a piece of medieval stained glass in the window to the left of the rood stairway.

Landulph Under 5's

The Chinese Celebrations at Pre-School were a big success! We all had lots of fun creating masterpieces and oriental culinary delights!

Thanks to those of you who helped walk the children up to the farm to feed the lambs; the children had a great time.

As spring is approaching we will be looking at involving the children in lots of outdoor fun using their creativity to make things, and we will be planting seeds and observing the plants' growth. We will be taking a spring-time walk and collecting sticks for the Spring Flower Show.

We are also looking forward to visiting the Forest School this term.

Another focus this term will be the Emergency Services; we are hoping to have a visit from a Fire Engine! We are looking forward to completing Road Safety in the near future.

All those children starting school in September will begin their transitional sessions once a month. It will be a good chance to familiarise the children with the school, the teacher/TA's and the routine.

Any green willow sticks or dogwood sticks you can contribute would be greatly appreciated. Any frog spawn would also be gratefully received.

Sarah Cox

Landulph Under 5's Baby and Toddler Group

We have had a busy start to the year with lots of cooking, crafting, planting and play. We enjoyed making our own dragons to celebrate Chinese new year and had a special visit from David and his guitar to help us make use of the musical instruments we'd made for our very own 'Landulph Toddler band'.

As always, the cooking activities prove popular with the children and the parents/ carers. Here is a picture of some face cookies we made - there were many more sweets consumed in the making of these masterpieces!

We have a full calendar of events for next term and have an activity on offer each week to encourage the children in play, learning and development. Keep an eye on the parish notice boards for our timetable. If you haven't been before please come along and try us out. We meet every Thursday morning in Landulph Memorial Hall Annexe 9.45am-11.30am. New members are welcome to come along for a free taster session.

Landulph Film Club

The Kite Runner: was due to be shown on 20 March but has been postponed due to technical problems with the video projection equipment. A provisional new date is 3 April but please watch for confirmation by email or by blackboard at Landulph Cross.

April 3: Set in Afghanistan this 2007 film tells the story of Amir, a well-to-do boy in Kabul who is tormented by the guilt of abandoning his friend Hassan, the son of his Father's faithful Hazara servant. Beautifully acted with amazing scenes of kite flying, the film provides some insights into Afghanistan society and events around the Soviet invasion and exodus of Afghan refugees .

April 17: Chariots of Fire: A 1981 film tells the fact-based story of two athletes in the 1924 Olympics: Eric Liddell, a devout Scottish Christian who runs for the glory of God, and Harold Abrahams, an English Jew who runs to overcome prejudice. What could be more appropriate in this year of the London Olympics? A film not to be missed and the last film in the current season.

Good Companions

The Annual Party was held on 7 January with entertainment from John and Rosemary Heard, violinist and pianist, with soloist Carolyn Harrison. 42 members then enjoyed a meat and sweet buffet, prepared by Shirley Floyd and her staff. Chairman Ted Webster thanked them for such an excellent meal.

Tues 21 Feb, Lorena Clavijo, Education and Community Officer from Sita showed a presentation on 'How and what to recycle'. She told us that from the 1 April 2012 the recycling bags will be replaced with boxes.

We look forward to our visit to Pentillie Gardens and afternoon tea on 15 May.

Our first trip on 24 April will be to Dartington and Totnes, followed by a train trip from Liskeard to Looe on 22 May and 26 June to Swindon Shopping Centre and Railway Museum.

If anyone would like to join us for our meetings or coach trips contact Doreen Braund 01752 845495
