Parish matters

Parish Council 19th October 2015

A gentle meeting with no weighty matters, but some unexpected points of interest. For example:

- The new owners of the Wayton solar park have offered an educational site visit for children but have not (yet) extended an invitation to adults.
- The Parish Council was invited to comment on a proposed cycleway between St Mellion and Carkeel and chose to say nothing as the track would not enter the parish. Nonetheless, there may be some keen Landulph cyclists who would welcome a safe cycle track nearby.
- Asked to indicate their preference for restrictions on Street Trading in the Parish, Council recommended a ban on all streets.
- Cornwall County aims to introduce 'paperless planning' no later than 1 April 2016 and in early reflections on how they might respond, councillors accepted that they would have to look at applications online at home in advance of Council meetings, and would have to put in place a means by which members of the public could view plans at the meetings too, possibly on the Annexe TV screen. Small problem – the remote control for the screen has been 'misplaced'.

Never a dull moment...

Morton Macleod

What can the Hall do for you?

The Committee for the Landulph Memorial Hall would like any suggestions you might have for future events or clubs you would like to see organised in the village. Some suggestions that may be popular as regular events for the future are: IT Classes, Zumba, ballroom dancing.

Please let us know if you would be interested in these along with any other suggestions that we may be able to take on board. Phone, Charlotte 843645 or Cindy 842187 or you can now Email us at events.lmh@gmail.com. We can't promise to make everything happen but we'll have a good go!

Remembrance Sunday well supported

The Remembrance Service at Landulph Church on 8 November was well attended and the collection was dedicated to the Royal British Legion. We were pleased to be able to send them a cheque for £140.

Nigel Johnson, Church Warden

PARISH COUNCIL VACANCY

You will all know that there is a vacancy for a Parish Councillor following the death of Reg Rice. This has been advertised for the past few weeks, but so far, no-one has expressed an interest. The Council should have seven members and is one short. Later we will have another vacancy due to my move out of the parish. Recently, a number of people have become closely involved in the local neighbourhood planning project, but we do need a similar level of commitment to our local parish government and to representing the needs of the community to Big Brother at Cornwall Council. Our Parish Council needs to be brought up to strength. The current members of the Parish Council have been in office for a number of years now, and the addition of new members would bring fresh enthusiasm and new ideas to the work of the Council. New blood is needed now!

Becoming a parish councillor is an opportunity to get actively involved in the running of the community's affairs, and doing your bit to make Landulph an even better place to live. It can be frustrating at times, but it is also very rewarding.

Your Parish Needs YOU!

If you would like to become further involved in the future of your community, please contact the Parish Clerk, Katherine Williams, at landulph-clerk@live.co.uk or telephone her on 01752 240541.

*Gerry Stevenson, Chairman,
Landulph Parish Council*

Neighbourhood Plan Movers and Shakers

Stand by for flyers, adverts, meetings and questionnaires about the Neighbourhood Plan. A recently-formed committee is now mapping out its strategy, so here is an introduction to some of the office-holders, particularly those who are relative newcomers.

Chairman. Marcus Forbes and his family moved into their new home in Fore Street approx 18 months ago. Marcus has variously been a tennis professional, a youth instructor with London HQ of the British Red Cross Society, and sold his gun and outdoor clothing store in Tavistock to retire to Landulph, but continues to shoot recreationally.

Vice Chairman. Tim Bell spent some of his youth in Cargreen while living with his mother Heather, and has returned as a resident with his fiancée Charlotte. He has extensive experience as an IT Solutions consultant, so quite naturally will set up and run the NP website in addition to covering for Marcus. Tim has already displayed some of his militaria collection at our WW1 commemoration and hopes to resume sailing as soon as possible.

Tim Burns and his wife Zoe have been frequent visitors to their home Southwark in Fore Street for several years. Tim has had a distinguished career in market research and opinion polling, so will have a leading role in the investigation and presentation of parishioners' views. He was born locally and has deep attachments to the area.

The Christingle comes to Landulph

There is to be a Christingle service in Landulph Parish Church on Thursday 13 December at 5pm. Christingle is a traditional pre-Christmas family service and is particularly aimed at younger children. Christingle means 'Christ's Light' and it is a symbol of the Christian faith. Central to the service is the Christingles which is full of symbolism. The orange represents the world; the candle is Jesus, the light of the world. The red ribbon reminds Christians that Jesus died for us; the sweets or dried fruit are God's gifts to the world including kindness and love.

Landulph Under Fives

We welcome Charlie and Isabelle to pre-school this half term. We have been talking about the signs of winter, how to keep warm and how animals survive in winter.

We have had great fun using the salad spinner and doilies to create fireworks!

We are looking forward to preparing for Christmas and will be selling packs of five Christmas cards in various designs. If you would like some handmade Christmas cards, please pop into pre-school from 1 December and take a look.

What a busy fundraising term for Landulph Under Fives! A big thank you to Jo and Amanda Copson for helping organise a lampshade workshop which took place on 6 October. Fifteen ladies created some fabulous lampshades over cheese and wine, raising over £200 for pre-school funds. We are currently putting together a list of names to organise a second workshop, please contact Amy at pre-school if you would like a place. In addition, we held our annual Halloween disco. We had a large turn out and the children all looked great, raising over £300. A big thank you to all who supported us.

We are putting together a recipe book, please take a look on our website for more details or contact Clarissa (Chair) or Amy (Leader). We would love to have your recipes included!

School News

We are delighted to announce that Mrs Best's maternity cover has been agreed by the Trust Board. Mrs John will step up to Head of School from January. We will appoint a new class teacher for Class 3.

Our biennial whole-school Christmas performances takes place at Landulph Memorial Hall and we are delighted to present Mr Humbug Sees the Light.

Performances will take place on Wednesday 2 December and Friday 4 December starting at 5.30pm.

Tickets are on sale at the school office, £3.50 for adults and £1.50 for children. I'm sure that the show will be a huge success and I know that the PTA have lots planned for this event too.

We are pleased that the PTA has managed to secure a grant to replace the school garage roof, this is a valuable resource and to have it back in full working order will be most appreciated. The PTA are also partially subsidising the recent trips to The Theatre Royal in Plymouth, with our older children attending a performance of Hetty Feather and our younger children attending Three Little Pigs.

Our Harvest Festival yielded a fabulous donation to the Saltash Food Bank, we are very pleased to be able to support this very worthy charity.

Marie Beaven-Smith

A year of 'Good Companionship'

Landulph Good Companions has had a very varied 2015 programme of monthly meetings and coach trips. These have included trips on trains, a horse drawn barge and coaches with visits to many destinations in Devon and Cornwall. Our last outing was a Christmas shopping trip to Truro in November.

Our monthly meetings have been equally varied with highlights ranging from story-telling and accordion music to displays of photography, a film on the stone mason's art, a talk on cream making and meat tasting.

Our current Chairman is Terry Darke and we now have 78 members who will be looking forward to 2016. Come and join us, we meet the third Tuesday of every month at 2.30pm in the Memorial Hall. Give Doreen a ring 01752 845495 or Mavis 01579 350385 for a programme, you will be given a very warm welcome.

Bag ladies on the lane - Please drive with care

These two dedicated old litter pickers continue to clear the verges around the village on a regular basis. It is very sad how much there is to pick up as we get a bagful every few weeks. We know that some falls off the recycling lorry, and we often do a clear up shortly after their collection day. However, the rubbish still accumulates between their visits. Editorial note: The state of our verges and pathways is a reflection of the pride we take in our parish surroundings. Please help our stalwart litter pickers, Jane and Margaret, to keep Landulph looking well cared for.

Landulph Gardening Club

The Club's AGM passed uneventfully in November and the Committee remains the same with the exception of Elizabeth Hawken. Thank you, Elizabeth, for all your help in the past. Jill Taylor has agreed to join us. On Wednesday 9 December we are having a Christmas meal with small entertainment afterwards in the LMH main hall. The cost is £12 for members and £15 for guests. If you'd like to come, please ring me as soon as possible on 01752 846504 for last minute information on the menu. There will be no meeting in January, but the 2016 programme begins on 10 February with a talk on 'out-of-the ordinary vegetables'. If anyone is interested in gardening in general, please come along as a visitor. During the year, from February on, we have six talks, three outdoor visits, one Christmas event and quite a large Spring Show. Jen Hambly

Use it or lose it

Reg Rice helped keep the Waitrose bus service running by cajoling the shop managers and by giving us parishioners a shake in this newsletter. The mobile shop too will keep going for the time being despite scant usage. The mobile library also gets scant usage but needs only a minimum of four visitors to justify its 20 minute stop in Coombe Lane. So even if you don't borrow a book, drop in for a chat with the nice lady and help keep this service ticking over. Morton Macleod

Festival Thanks

Well another successful Landulph Festival is completed and what a good week it was. I hope you all enjoyed it as much we did. When the actress in the opening performance broke her leg two weeks before the start, I thought it was a bad omen, but the Dalla group, of which she is a member, did a really good job at short notice, after it all went without a hitch, culminating in a wonderful finale by Aquarelle. Jane Espig again did a wonderful job organising a good Art Show, her band of helpers manning the Rectory Room at the weekends and producing great teas. Jane has done it for many years and sadly has decided that it is time to hand over the reins to someone else.

An enormous thank you to those in the village who supported us, we really appreciate it, and also for those who ventured out from other villages. We must also say a huge thank you to The Tamar Fruiterers and Tamar Valley Meat, from the Carkeel garden centre, Able Print/Print Minor, Peggy Dawe, Betty Reynolds, Nikki Gill, James Jermain, Stoke Climsland Newsletter and the St. Mellion Newsletter.

The Festival does not just happen on its own! The committee put in a lot of hard work, and I am extremely grateful to them all - thank you. However next year we will be lacking committee members. Tracy Barnes, who acts as secretary, will hopefully remain a member but has not time to

If any one feels that they would like to be part of a fun committee please let me know. Next year's Festival will again be in October, but we hope to spread it out over a longer time. The Festival AGM will be on January 26th 2016 in the Rectory Room, please come and support us, and bring with you any ideas that you might like to see performed. Again very many thanks for all the support we received.

A WI Revival for Cargreen?

On Tuesday 10 November, ten ladies gathered at the Memorial Hall Annexe to meet advisers from the Cornwall Federation of Women's Institutes, to discuss the possibility of starting a new club in Cargreen. There were a number of apologies and it became clear that the second Tuesday in the month was not a good evening to choose.

There was a lot of enthusiasm for a new club and we agreed to meet again on Tuesday 1 December at 7.30pm in the Memorial Hall Annexe. If we decide to go ahead, the new club will be formed in January or February 2016.

We decided that, as its nearly Christmas, we should have a party so, if you are interested, please bring some food to share. Relax! It needn't be home-made.

There will be a brief demonstration on making Christmas decorations, and you will be invited to make a decoration for the LMH Christmas tree.

If you cannot attend the meeting but would like to be involved, please let me know, and keep your eye on the village notice boards for further developments. The WI is not only about craft and baking. It has a history of campaigning on important social issues, so there should be something for everyone!

Dancing for Burns night

Landulph's Burns Night celebrations will take an unconventional but no doubt entertaining form on 23 January next year. There will be the traditional piping in and addressing of the Haggis, and toasts, but the main event will be a Ceilidh with Scottish and country dancing to the live band the Lords of Misrule and experienced caller Tom Stephens - so bring your dancing shoes.

Festivities start at 7.00pm and the Haggis will be piped in at 7.30. There will be a buffet supper and the bar will remain open until 11.30. There will be a prize for the best dressed Scotsman or woman (children welcome to enter this as well) and, naturally, the statutory raffle with fantastic prizes to be won.

Tickets are only £10.00 for adults, £6.00 for the teens to 18 and kids under 12 go free. Get your tickets early to avoid disappointment – phone Charlotte Alder 843645 or email events.lmh@gmail.com.

Landulph Film Club

December film: What We did On Our Holiday

David Tennant and Rosamund Pike are Doug and Abi, the troubled parents of three boisterous kids: they're heading up to Scotland for the 75th birthday of Doug's unwell dad, Gordy (Billy Connolly), which means staying with Doug's uptight brother, Gavin (Ben Miller), and his depressed wife, Margaret (an excellent Amelia Bullmore). This means maintaining all the secrets and lies of families, and Gordy finds the only people he really gets on with are Doug's young children. He respects their natural honesty and confides to them his hopes and fears. A charming and delightful film with Billy Connolly in superb form, playing at the Memorial Hall on Tuesday 15 December at 8.00 pm

January film: The Grand Budapest Hotel

This delirious operetta-farce is an eerily detailed and very funny film featuring Ralph Fiennes as Monsieur Gustave the super-elegant manager of the Grand Budapest Hotel set in a pre-war central European country, the fictional Zubrowka, in the early 1930s. Ralph Fiennes is on glorious form as Monsieur Gustave, the legendary concierge while the hotel is a superb cathedral of eccentricity, with a gorgeous dining hall the size of a football field, a canyon of a lobby area, with an exquisitely ornate galleried central space which is to be the location of an extraordinary gunfight. This is a richly crafted film of the highest order. Come and see it on

Local Christmas Cards

The table below lists those families who contributed, in 2014, to the Salvation Army Children's Christmas party. This contribution was in lieu of sending local Christmas cards. If I don't hear to the contrary, it will be assumed that they wish to continue for 2015.

I will collect donations during December.

£430 was sent to the Salvation Army last Christmas in lieu of local Christmas cards. See the previous issue Oct/November for a happy picture of the party.

A Big Thank You To Cargreen

I arrived in Cargreen in June 2013 having been persuaded by my daughter that this would be 'a great place to live and not be lonely' (or a burden to my nearest and dearest!) I didn't believe a word she said, how could a newly retired old lady land anywhere and be welcomed and accepted. That took 30 years in the village I moved from.....but hey! How right she was; I was dragged up to the Gardening Club after a relatively short settling in period, coerced into Tai Chi which led onto Mah-Jongg, invited to join in visits to the theatre, thoroughly enjoyed some events at the village hall where I was convinced I would be a 'billy-no-mates' – need I say more? This is Cargreen, a unique village in all respects, I have never felt so happy and comfortable. The icing on the cake (in every respect) was a joint birthday party organised for myself and Penny Robson which I was convinced only three men and a dog would bother to attend, how wrong could I be? We were treated to music from Cornish Jam which was brilliant, your resident cooks Juliet & Annemarie excelled themselves by producing (after a great deal of argument I understand) two fantastic birthday cakes. It was a thoroughly enjoyable affair and even the sun shone after a week of rain. What a village to find myself in – thank you, one and all!
