Parish Council Meeting

Playground repairs may push up rates

The playing field and playground at Penyoke have become interesting for all the wrong reasons; the play equipment in the enclosure is beginning to rot and rust after 12 years to the point where a succession of expensive replacements is already under way, but costs cannot be sustained. An application for funds from the Solar Park is likely to be made by a volunteer working group, and the PC will vote at December's meeting on raising the parish precept by 10% in order to raise approximately £1,000 per annum to cover repairs and replacements. Calm down, the extra expense per household is chickenfeed!

Street Trading A few months ago, the Parish Council asked for a complete ban on street trading in the parish, with particular concerns about car sales on Fore Street. County had looked into the matter and reported that there was insufficient proof of such an activity as there were no obvious advertised sales.

New street names There is a proposal to have Back Lane and Penyoke Lane formally recognised in addresses and with signage. This will help emergency services find individual homes - but the one resident whose postcode will have to change may not be dancing in the lane. At November's meeting one affected resident was unsure which lane was which, and all were surprised to learn that a change of street names and postcodes would have to be registered with a staggering list of departments and authorities. Later in the meeting when asked if the parish wanted to host a Cornish leg of the Tour of Britain Cycle Race it was taken as a brilliant entertainment to direct them down Back Lane!

Rosehill housing estate Potential development of the Rosehill site (where the Cloake greenhouses are) got short shrift from those who had attended or had received reports, and it seems that the Council is warming up to a robust rejection if planning consent is sought for the proposals unchanged. What's more, the Neighbourhood Plan will define the constraints on acceptability.

The deadline for submissions for Solar Park funds has been extended to Tuesday 10 January 2017; see the last two newsletters or the parish Council website for details. Funding applications should be sent to landulph-clerk@live.co.uk

Neighbourhood Plan questionnaire on its way

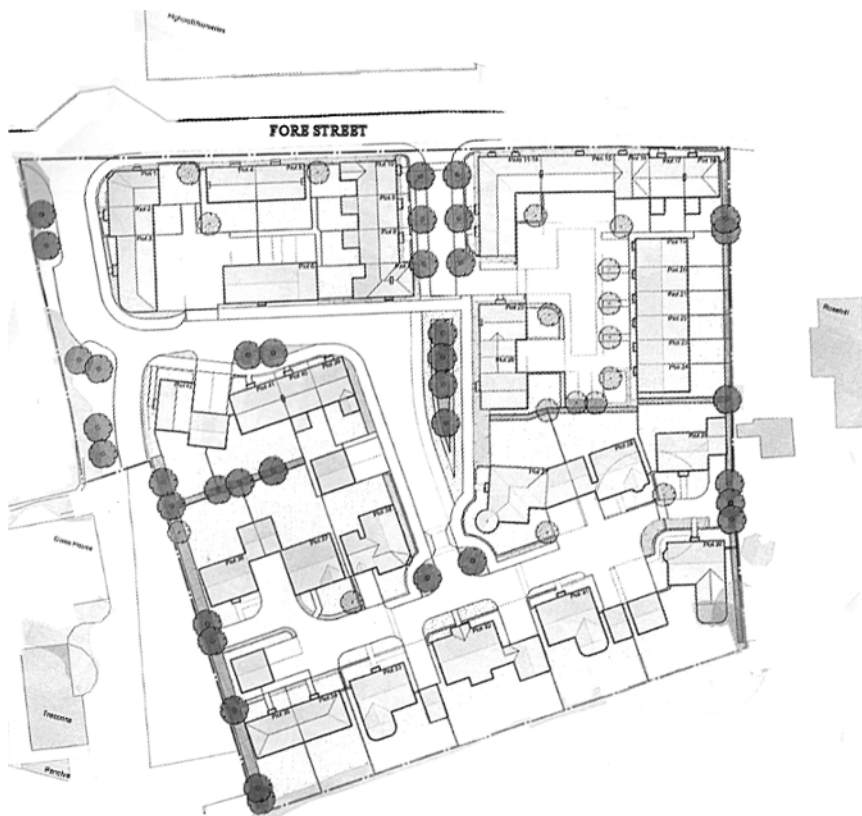

All Landulph households and businesses will shortly receive a questionnaire from the Neighbourhood Plan steering group. This is part of the consultation process prior to the Plan being submitted to the community for approval and acceptance.

The Plan, once adopted locally and accepted by the Cornwall County Council, will have legal weight and will influence planning policy for our part of the county. The adopted plan could be a powerful tool in shaping the future look of the community and dictating the location and pace of any development. The group urges you take a few minutes now to invest in the long term future of Landulph Parish.

Rosehill development plans unveiled

The plans below show the proposals for replacing the Cloake greenhouses with 42 houses and flats including 13 'affordable' homes. The scheme, drawn up by The Landscape Practice, was unveiled at a public meeting in November and later discussed at the November Parish Council meeting (see previous page) At this stage the plans are tentative and subject to change, and will go to formal public consultation before being lodged with the Cornwall Planning Department. There will be plenty more opportunities for parishioners to express their opinions.

Under Fives group in big fund raising push

The Landulph Under Five Pre-School and Toddler group has recently raised £1,211 at various events including the Halloween Disco, Harvest Hamper Raffle and Car Boot Sale. The children are currently busy making Christmas cards which will be available for sale from the beginning of December.

The group now also has its own Facebook page. This will contain information about our events and photos of arts and crafts the children have produced.

In a busy programme this term, the under-fives have been involved in harvest festival activities, painting a firework picture and learning about Diwali.

The group wishes you all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Emily Duckering, Chair Landulph Under Fives

The Landulph Under Fives Pre-School would like to thank the anonymous donor who kindly popped a very generous envelope into pre-school in mid-November. It will be put towards new books and IT equipment.

Thank you
Sammy Coryton

and a thumbs up from Charlie and Daniel

Landulph School

Life has been very busy at Landulph School this term. Our first whole school topic was Super Heroes finishing off with our 'Be Your Own Super Hero Day'. This was supported fantastically by all the staff and children; the costumes were over and above all of our expectations. Amongst the homemade costumes we had Flower Girl, Doctor P, Fire Girl and Wild Boy. The children were able to show off their costumes during assembly time and were so proud to share how they made them and which special powers they possessed. This year we were invited to celebrate our harvest festival assembly at Landulph Church. With children and parents filling the church it really was a very atmospheric and thoroughly enjoyable event. We were delighted to be able to donate a substantial amount of produce to the Saltash Food bank.

Operation Christmas Child again saw our children thinking of others and we were delighted to have over 20 boxes ready for collection in November. For Children in Need we donated our spotty outfits and made spotty cakes whilst raising over £100 for this worthy cause.

Our grandparents' lunch was another fantastic event with 30 grandparents joining us; credit to the kitchen for catering for all the additional meals and of the course the children who entertained, chaperoned and very proudly showed off their school.

The New Year will see us all attending one of two performances at Plymouth Theatre Royal, 'The Emperors New Clothes' and 'Snow White and the 7 Dwarfs', courtesy of an extremely generous donation from Lunchtime Assistant Mrs Darke.

Mrs Darke has very kindly paid for a ticket for every child to attend the theatre. This exciting visit has also been made possible by the PTA who kindly agreed to fund the coach hire.

Our PTA have been very active this term organising a Bag2School collection, weekly cake raffle, coffee morning, scholastic book fair and an absolutely splendid pamper evening.

Finally we are looking forward to Mrs Best's return from maternity leave in December, when Mrs John will return to her role as class teacher and Deputy Head.

Talks at Cargreen Yacht Club

The winter talks programme at the Cargreen Yacht Club has been announced. All parishioners are very welcome. Some might prove heavy going for non-boaty folk but others are of general interest and should prove entertaining. Those listed below are the ones with wider appeal.

13 January 2017 Skippers' Errors, Misfortunes and Problems. Humour and education from Charles Evans, Tony Head and James Jermain

27 January Practical demonstration

on the Design and Use of Liferrafts with real-life experiences by Will Davies and Simon Wilkinson

10 February Crossing the Atlantic to Brazil, with David and Nikki Barwell

23 February Lechlade to the Frisian Islands in a 15ft dinghy, told by John and Josephine Perry

No change at Cargreen YC

The Annual Meeting of the Cargreen Yacht Club re-elected the current committee without change.

Charles Evans remains as Commodore for another year with John Davis and Vice-Commodore. Sophie Forbes is Secretary and Ron Edwards Treasurer.

Charles Evans reported that club activities had been generally successful and well supported by members. Ron Edwards said the accounts looked confusing because of differences in accounting periods but the club finances were sound and the invested reserves had shown a healthy increase over the year.

Landulph Festival Round-up

The 2016 Landulph Festival of Music has ended; what great performances we had. I hope you all enjoyed it as much as I did. The three weeks of festival activities and then the three week gap before we had the Concert of Remembrance, was a lot easier than trying to fit as many events as we could into ten days! From the feedback so far, I think, and hope, that most people could find something in the programme to appreciate. I am extremely grateful to everyone who supported and helped; we could not do it without all the volunteers, especially those who are not even on the committee - thank you all.

The New Year Pantomime is next on the Festival Agenda, a new venture and I know that Sally Worth and her cast have a lot of hard work ahead to be prepared for our enjoyment in February. Please remember to put the date in your diary and promote it to your friends. This is a village entertainment in place of Village Night so that perhaps we can schedule both events on alternate years in the future.

We are already lining up our programme for next year. I listen to all the comments and criticisms, but it is very difficult to select performers and acts unless you help us by offering ideas of what you would like included. Again a huge personal thank to everyone for all the help and support you gave me.

Kirstie Evans, Chairman, Festival Committee

Good Companions take birthday tea at Pentille

Landulph Good Companions, enjoyed afternoon tea at Pentillie Castle to celebrate their 40th year. Several members were able to travel by Land Rover and car to view the wonderful James Tillie Mausoleum. Thanks were expressed to Ted Coryton and staff.

Coach trips have taken us to Dartmoor, Bicton Gardens, Swindon Railway Museum, Seaton Railway, Bude on the hottest day of the year and Wells to see the beautiful cathedral. Our last trip is to Barnstaple for Christmas shopping.

Our first meeting for 2017 will be on Tuesday 17 January when the speaker will be Ed Buckingham, the only Cornishman to have climbed Everest. Our first trip is on 25 April 2017 to Heartlands Mining World Heritage site and Botanical Gardens at Pool, near Redruth. Admission is free.

Come and join us; we meet the third Tuesday of every month at 2.30 pm in the Memorial Hall. Give Doreen a ring 01752 845495 or Mavis 01579 350385 for a programme. You will be given a very warm welcome.

Parish Walks Tuesday 27 December

The day after Boxing Day is the time to get the family off the sofa and join the Annual Parish Walks Event. All abilities are catered for, with a Long Walk (about 5 miles) a Middle Walk (about 3 miles) and a Short Walk (about 2 miles). The walks leave from the Cargreen Yacht Club at: 10.00am (long), 10.30am (middle) and 11.30am (short), and finish back at the Yacht Club between 12.30pm and 1.00pm. There, for a nominal sum, a warm welcome of soup (homemade) and pasties awaits. The bar will also be open.

This has always been (even in inclement weather!) an enjoyable family-friendly event, so come and shake off the carbs and join in.

In the first of a new, occasional series, we are reporting on the businesses behind the adverts of some of our long standing advertisers. Without them the Newsletter couldn't continue so please support them in return - Ed

Our Loyal Advertisers – Richard Brown, farmer

Richard's father took on the tenancy of the Duchy-owned Park Farm (opposite the school) in 1957, and that's where Richard grew up and learned his skills. Richard has concentrated on raising beef and lamb. His cattle are an American hybrid called Stabiliser, which has the qualities of cool temperament, rapid growth, easy calving and excellent meat. They're a favourite with Morrison's supermarket which would buy direct from Richard if he could supply enough regular truckloads, but he has no trouble finding buyers within Cornwall. See his advert and the attractive offer of jointed cuts. In addition to his Duchy tenancy he has fortunately been able to rent land from Ted Coryton and family which has enabled him to grow his beef herd to about 300 animals.

There's also a flock of about 100 Dorset-cross sheep. Now here's the clever bit; the rams and bulls work to a strict duty roster so that lambing happens in January and February which means that once the lambing shed is cleared the cows then come in to calve, and later, when the 18-week old lambs are sent to market, the pasture recovers well enough to graze the cattle through the summer. It's family planning, but not as we know it!

Among the delights of the farming year are the visits of the pre-school children to see the lambs. Less obvious to the rest of us are Prince Charles' private meetings with his tenant farmers in the South West, and a special treat for Richard –a visit to the Prince's home at Highgrove. Royal connections don't end there; Richard's parents and other Duchy tenants were introduced to the Queen during her visit to Landulph in 1962, which his mother remembers with delight.

(With thanks to Richard who started advertising in 2008)

Ed the postie conquered Everest – hear all about it!

The Good Companions would be delighted to welcome non-members to hear Cornish postie Ed Buckingham give his account of how he trained for, and then successfully summited, Mount Everest. I've had the thrill of listening to his highly personal and honest story, seeing the photos and imagining the extremes of emotional and physical exposure and then being literally on top of the world. His talk is at 2.30pm on Tuesday 17th January in the Hall; I cannot recommend this talk too highly and urge you to attend.

Landulph Methodist Church

Landulph Methodist Church held their Harvest Festival Services on Sunday 18 and Monday 19 September. The service on Sunday was taken by Rev Malcolm Richards. On Monday evening the service was taken by Mr Peter Coombe. Collections and sale of produce raised £254 for Church Funds. Don't forget our Carol Concert with the Burraton Boys on Sunday 11 December at 3 00pm.

Pantomime Spectacular!

Good news! Jack And The Beanstalk has been cast and rehearsals are underway for our New Year Pantomime Performances on Friday 3 February at 7pm and Saturday 4 February at 6pm in Landulph Hall.

Expect all your favourite panto magic, music and mayhem in a terrific tale where the sky's the limit! When money-mad Uriah Creep demands ever-higher rents, Jack has no choice but to go to market to sell Maisy Moo the beloved family cow. But his mum, Dame Effy Caishus, is far from impressed when all he comes home with is a handful of old beans.

However, these aren't any old beans. These are magic beans that miraculously grow into a huge beanstalk that reaches into the scary giant's kingdom. But will Jack dare climb up above the clouds to defeat the giant, rescue the Princess and restore the village's fortunes? You bet he will!

This fabulous festive treat promises plenty of Fee-Fi-Fo-Fun for all the family!

To reserve your tickets (Adults £6, Children £3), please contact John Hall on 01752 841598 or visit www.landulphfestival.co.uk.

Hardy and Bennett provide themes for Film Club

At the end of the year and the dawn of a new one, the Film Club turns to a timeless classic, Thomas Hardy's Far From the Madding Crowd as the film for December. This film is the fourth adaptation of the novel about the headstrong Bathsheba's exploration of the nature of relationships and love. As we survive a year of political turmoil it will be nice to get back to basics! For the first film of 2017 we have the story of another remarkable relationship, that between the famous writer Alan Bennett and the singular Miss Shepherd who lived in a van. At first the van was in the road outside Bennett's house, then in his driveway, where it stayed for 15 years. It is an amazing portrayal, both funny and tragic, of a true event brilliantly played by Maggie Smith and Alex Jennings.

John Hall

Landulph Gardening Club

The long warm Autumn seems to be subsiding into grey and wet. The club too is becoming semi-dormant for the winter. The AGM has happened and the same committee will be in place for 2017. On Wednesday 14 December we will have a Christmassy meal at The Cardinals Hatt. If you haven't booked up yet, please ring straight away to either me (01752 846504) or Jill Taylor (01752 841112). The cost is £18 for members and £21 for guests for a two course meal with tea & coffee.

No meeting scheduled for January but on 8 February, there will be a talk on those early flowers Snowdrops and Hellebores.

Support the 'bomb'

Some time next summer the Cargreen Cancer Research UK Fundraising Group are planning a fundraising event for Cancer ResearchUK Kids and Teens. Part of the event will involve Yarn Bombing the village.

The group will need wool, so if you have any spare, I would be very pleased if you could give it to them so they can get knitting during the winter. Help with the knitting would also be great. The more we knit the more fantastic the village will look.
