Parish Council ~ Monday 21 October

After a month's delay, I have the privilege of picking up the baton from Morton. I shall attempt to continue to put 'flesh on the bones' of the official minutes and give an insight into matters discussed at the public forums which, as any person who has attended a meeting will know, are not always formally recorded.

With a full agenda in front of them, the Councillors set off at a cracking pace until they got to the topic of planning. Two of the applications in front of them concerned previously agreed plans and it became apparent that our Councillors felt that there were inconsistencies in the way in which Cornwall Council's officers interpreted and implemented planning regulations. The Councillors resolved to ask for a meeting with the planning officers but it was not determined whether or not the wider public would be involved.

After dispatching the next few items on the agenda in double quick time, the Councillors paused to consider the emotive subject of the Landulph Under 5s finances.

It soon became evident that the group requires financial support in the short and medium term. The Councillors deferred any resolution regarding a Section 137 grant application to their next meeting as they required more up to date accounts before they would make any decision. (Section 137 of the Local Government Act 1972 is a statutory power. It allows Councils to unlock reserve funds to incur expenditure for purposes not otherwise authorised). However, they did agree to release the £714.63 of ring-fenced Youth Club funds to the group, on the clear understanding that should a Youth Club be re-established then the Council would look favourably upon a request for funding.

Parishioners who read the minutes will have noticed that the Councillors were highly excited by the issue of dog fouling in September. However, what may have gone 'under the radar' is that if one of our Councillors witnessed dog fouling, littering or fly tipping, they are now trained to fill out a form which, when sent off to Cornwall Council, will result in fines being levied on the miscreants. This may not be Big Brother yet, but offenders should note that our Councillors' powers extend beyond the Parish boundaries and into the whole of Cornwall.

Parish Council ~ Monday 25th November

I thought that my second report would be easier but Newsletter HQ has dictated that I limit myself to a pitiful 210 words! A number of items were pushed forward to the next meeting as the Clerk was absent through illness. However, the Council did resolve to give the under 5s group the maximum permissible amount under S137, ie an additional £2,809.45. The Councillors also resolved to support the Tree Warden's proposal to plant 12 indigenous tree saplings in a corner of the cricket field. The Council will now send a copy to the cricket club. Following a recent incident where an elderly person of slight disposition failed to open the defibrillator, the Council resolved to have another training day in the new year at which the opening of the box would be covered. We were informed that the 20mph signs are coming and that the black box speed recorders will make another brief appearance. If we are lucky we might even get a visit from the County's Mobile Speed Activation Sign! As the Council is going to ask Cornwall Council to maintain the whole of Coombe Lane, perhaps the MSAS could be located on the gated road section.

A QUALITY SERVICE- A SENSIBLE PRICE

Landulph Under Fives

The parish's pre-school groups have spaces for two to five year olds. The site has one of the best views and some of the best facilities in the country! Government funding is available where applicable. We'd love to hear from you on 07718 830 149 to arrange a visit. We enjoy welcoming new children to our pre-school and there's nothing better than receiving a message like this after their first week. 'We just wanted to thank Abbey, Claire and all the children for making I's first week at Landulph a happy one! He already said he's looking forward to next week and loved playing with Abbey (and thank you for calming my nerves too!)'.

We have a Bag2School collection on Tuesday 10 December so if you are having a clear out, please feel free to drop any bags of clothes to us by 3pm on Monday 9 December ready for our collection. We receive money dependent on how much our haul weighs so the more donations we are given, the more money we receive.

Accepted items are: good quality adult and children's clothing, paired shoes, hats, belts, handbags, soft toys, bedding, curtains and towels. They do not accept duvets, pillows or cushions, or school and work uniforms.

Our topic this term has been 'seasons' with a focus on Autumn and Winter. The children have been learning about the world around them and using the different textures available in nature to create pictures, including making leaf wreaths. We enjoyed making tissue paper poppies in aid of Remembrance Day and the children learnt why we mark the day every year.

We also took part in the two-minute silence - the children were mostly able to do this but two minutes is a long time in their world! We have baked fairy cakes, made Pudsey masks and had our faces painted in aid of Children in Need. We are now gearing up to enjoy the celebrations of Christmas with lots of Christmassy activities planned as well as a pre-school trip. We have sent our shoeboxes off to Operation Christmas Child which means more children around the world receive a present at Christmas.

Our topic for January will be 'transport' which will involve a trip on the train. Thank you to everyone who supported us at our band night during the festival and also to everyone who bought raffle tickets to raise vital funds for the preschool. Band night raised an awesome £800 and the raffle a whopping £650. Thank you so much, without your support we couldn't do this! Our annual pop up professional photography studio on Thursday 21 and Saturday 23rd November has proved increasingly popular with both days almost fully booked for appointments.

School starts build up to Christmas

It has been a busy term at Landulph, with highlights including apple day and harvest celebration at Landulph Church. Everyone was very generous with their donations for Saltash Foodbank.

We had a visit from the Cheap Date Dance Company prior to their performance at the Landulph Festival. They helped the children explore contemporary dance. We have also been raising money for BBC Children In Need by taking part in the 'Big Morning Move!'

Our Year 6 children and Miss Colebrook-Clark have recently returned from a fun filled week in London visiting the museums, the Houses of Parliament and the Theatre to name but a few. They went with children from Dobwalls, one of the other schools in our Multi-Academy Trust. Our youngest children in Class 1 are enjoying their Wild Tribe sessions. They have been making nature medallions and woodland crowns. They also made weaving looms with things they foraged in our wonderful outdoor area. See front cover for photo image provided by the school.

It is now time that we start turning our thoughts to Christmas and the children are busy rehearsing for their show and learning Christmas Carols ready for our festivities. Our show this year will be Never Say Neverland and will be performed at the Memorial Hall on Thursday 5 December at 1.30pm (doors open at 1.00pm). Everybody is invited. For tickets ring 01752 845572.

Due to unforeseen circumstances our Christmas Fayre has been cancelled.

Help Evie (12) get to Malawi

Hi! My name is Evie Pearson, I am 12 years old and I go to Saltash Community School. In 2021 I am incredibly excited and privileged to have the opportunity of a lifetime: travelling to the rugged and intriguing country of Malawi with weareworldchallenge.com.

On the trip we are going to help with a local community-led initiative, it will be hard work, take a lot of determination and dedication, but I believe that we can make a difference. We will also experience a stunning safari on the savannah and master the mighty Mount Malawi.

Part of the challenge is for me to raise the money I need for the expedition. If you have any jobs that I can do for you please contact me at eviepearson1@icloud.com or contact my Mum (Jo) or Dad (Steve). I can bake, animal sit/dog walk, plant sit, do small gardening jobs, car washing or anything else you think would be suitable.

Thank you.

Landulph Festival of Music and Arts

Landulph held another fantastic festival in October 2019; it always amazes me that such a small parish can entice such outstanding performers to entertain us, and this, our 17th year, was no exception. Audience figures reached almost 900 for the various performance events and the Art Exhibition was definitely a success, showcasing the talent of local artists to an appreciative public. Yet again, our sponsors and Friends generously supported us and the sale of season tickets increased dramatically as more people realised what good value they are. Our opening weekend, though later than usual in October, got us off to a flying start with the Kit Hillbillies, a fun Murder Mystery evening and Wurlitza, definitely establishing the right mood for the weekends to follow. Lily Neill's harp concert at the Church was both informative and inspirational, whilst the production of Othello featured an imaginative use of staging in the Hall, enabling the audience to feel really involved in the drama and culminating in a standing ovation for the actors. Village Night was, as always, fully interactive, though maybe somewhat too raucous at times! It is a great opportunity for those who live in the parish to display their unsuspected talents. The revelation of the night was definitely young Master Armstrong and his superb piano playing. I hope next time more new faces of all ages will volunteer to take to the stage.

Last, but by no means least, the most enormous thank you to John Williams who, with John Etheridge, gave us two exceptional evenings. I was very grateful as Chair of the committee, to have the privilege of being able to listen to them on both evenings.

During the course of the Festival, we offered an evening to the Under 5's dedicated to their fund-raising efforts, featuring Vince Lee & The Big Combo as part of the Festival promotion.

We also funded a dance workshop at the School with the Cheap Date Dance Company prior to their performance. In addition, thanks to generous audience support, the raffle raised £450 for local charity Battling On helping those with dementia.

I have said it before and I will say it again: the whole festival takes a tremendous amount of team effort from all the committee and many friends to whom, as always, I am very grateful - a huge thank you to everyone involved in making it another festival of which we can all be proud.

They shall not grow old...

...as we who are left grow old:

Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn,

At the going down of the sun and in the morning

We will remember them.

Most of us know this four-line verse by heart, having been moved by it annually on Remembrance Day. Less well known is its Cornish origin. It is the middle verse of a seven-verse poem composed by Laurence Binyon while sitting outdoors on the Cornish coast in September 1914. The First World War was barely a month old, yet Binyon felt moved to convey the pride and grief experienced by a nation whose losses had just begun and could not possibly be imagined.

Both Pentire Point and Portreath have plaques on the cliffs, noting the spot where the poet may have sat.

The Cornish Oak (Quercus petraea)

Amanda Pugh, the Parish Tree Warden, extols the sacred Cornish Oak

Our native tree's specific epithet, petraea, means 'of rocky places' and we can see that on our river bank here on the Tamar; most of the oaks you will see are the Cornish Oak. This unofficial emblem of Cornwall is also known as the Sessile Oak, less famous than English Oak (Quercus robur) but no less loved.

Squirrels, Jays and Badgers love their Acorns, caterpillars flock to eat their leaves and purple hairstreak butterflies flutter in their canopy in the summer. In fact 326 species of wildlife are found only on an oak.

How do we tell the difference between an English and a Cornish oak? The Cornish Oak holds its acorns close to its stalk and leaf and the English Oak has acorns that hang down (pedunculated). The oak processionary moth poses a risk to our oaks mostly in the South East. Brought in on imported trees from Holland, the moth's hairs are toxic and can cause respiratory problems in humans. The oak was sacred to many gods including the Celtic god Dagda. He ruled over thunder and lightning and oak trees are often hit by lightning as they are the tallest living feature in the landscape.

Oaks produce one of the hardest and most durable timbers on the planet - it takes up to 150 years before an Oak is ready to use in construction. Leaves, bark and acorns were believed to heal many ailments including inflammation and kidney stones. Acorns have also been used to make bread flour and to fatten up pigs. The tannin found in the bark has been used to tan leather since Roman Times.

But of all these attributes and qualities, it is the iconic beauty of our Cornish oak that drips along our river banks in full leaf in the summer and the gentle susuration as breezes blow down the river that is of greatest value.

Amanda Pugh

Christmas is coming...

...and so is another family argument. Blame Darwin. It's an interesting point of view. Why do all of our sweet little children morph into teenagers who appear to loathe everyone around them? It would appear that it is natural to find your siblings abhorrent and your parents incredibly annoying. Don't despair. This is what makes them want to fly the nest and expand the gene pool. Without these innate family feuds, our ancestors wouldn't have wanted to leave the cave; we wouldn't have genetic diversification. Frustrating family arguments and teenage tantrums are all nature's way of allowing us to evolve.

What do you think? Under 18s make up a significant proportion of our village and we are really keen to hear your points of view. If anyone would like to write a few lines for the magazine we would be really grateful. It could be about something you are proud of, an event that's either been or coming up, or even just a rant about something that annoys you.

It would appear that, overall, the under 18s I have spoken to enjoy living in Landulph. The feature they most enjoy is the waterfront for quay jumping, swimming, watersports etc. The thing that frustrates them most is transport - or lack of it. If you have an opinion on this, and you are under 18, please let us know.

The parish teenagers were out in force for the ever-popular Village Night. Once the packed crowds had left the hall, after patiently sitting through performances from the village elders (and one younger: huge applause to Harry Armstrong) the teenagers emerged from the shadows of the near deserted hall. It was clear that karaoke was a popular choice for the younger generation. They performed with all the energy of youth to an audience of, quite literally, several. Prior knowledge of the melodies was clearly not a requisite; 'if you don't know the tune, you just sing louder' rules applied and their cheerful voices echoed off the hollow walls. Those parishioners that were sober enough, retreated to the annexe bar; those that were not, didn't - they only have themselves to blame!

Comedy, romance and... err Frozen

Landulph Film Club continues the winter season on 17 December with a comedy film to lighten the dark winter days; Three Men In A Boat (1956) is an adaptation of the classic novel by Jerome K Jerome.

The three friends, George (Laurence Harvey), Harris (Jimmy Edwards) and J (David Tomlinson) - decide to escape from their women problems by going boating on the Thames River. With Oxford as their destination, they set out for the trip of a lifetime. Their idyllic cruise soon becomes anything but when they encounter, among other problems, heavy rain and a sailing regatta. But the gloomy outlook brightens when they meet three young and wealthy women...

The first film of the New Year, showing on 21 January, is The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Society (2018). This film's title is a mouthful, no question, yet its plot is both fascinating and moving.

In 1941, on the island of Guernsey, four friends are stopped by soldiers for breaching curfew during German occupation. When asked for their reason, they say they were returning from their book club, hastily named 'The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society', to avoid arrest. After the war in 1946 a London based author Juliet Aston hears about the society and goes to Guernsey to investigate and also discovers romance.

Children's Christmas special The Film Club's customary free Christmas showing for children (and adults) is the smash hit, Frozen (2014). The special showing will be on Saturday 4 January, 6.00 pm, at Landulph Memorial Hall.

Landulph Christmas Walk

Sunday 29 December is the day you are invited to join the traditional parish walks, to beat the footpaths around the parish of Landulph and also meet up with fellow spirited parishioners. This annual event goes back many years, and still remains important so that all public footpaths are kept open and useable.

As usual there will be three walks starting at the Cargreen Yacht Club and designed for different capabilities: the long walk starts at 9.30am and covers about 7.5 miles, the medium walk starts at 10.30am and covers about 4 miles and the short walk starts at 11.30 and covers 2 miles.

All walks are planned to finish between 12.30 and 1.00pm at the Yacht Club where pasties, soup and liquid refreshments will be available to warm you up. You are welcome to join the walk, but you must take full responsibility for your own health and safety, and you are advised to wear adequate footwear.

Local Christmas Cards

A table was shown in our previous edition (Issue 83) giving names of those families who contributed to the Salvation Army Children's party. As previously mentioned, instead of throwing a party for the children we would prefer to give them a proper Christmas Gift this year. This way they will have something to keep. If you wish your name to be removed/added to the list, please contact me. Otherwise I would be delighted to receive your contributions at Laxtons, Cargreen (01752 844519). If you would like a Gift Aid form please let me know.

Letter to the editor

It's that time of year when many of us are having an autumn tidy up. Garden waste may seem harmless and is usually biodegradable. People may think that getting rid of it in a river is not as bad as dumping other waste but legally this is classed as fly tipping and is against the law. Garden waste can spread invasive plants which threaten native species. Leach nutrients into the water which promotes algae growth which smothers healthy native aquatic plants. The sediment from waste clogs up gravel river beds and prevents fish from spawning. Large amounts can cause obstructions leading to flooding. It attracts and harbours vermin and it is an unsightly eyesore and detracts from the enjoyment of walkers and boaters. Garden waste can easily be made into compost. We have a fortnightly brown bin recycling collection service or we can deposit at the waste recycle centre. Let's look after our river.

TV stars living in Cargreen

For those of you who missed it on the BBC, and for those who have BBC I player, you can still watch a splendid performance from Jane O'Sullivan and Marc Shirlaw of Cargreen, in TVs Bargain Hunt programme, which was first shown in November and filmed at Wadebrige and Plymouth (series 54:Wadebridge 4).

The Hall Cafe

Tuesday morning is the time for coffee and cake. Charlotte's idea of a regular slot at Landolph Memorial Hall is proving very popular. Coffee and tea together with a variety of cakes are on offer.

It's a chance to catchup with friends and neighbours and to meet those who you have previously only seen going past in their car. Thank you Charlotte.

Christmas Carols on the Quay

You are invited to join the Cargreen Choir for Christmas Carols on the Quay in Fore Street on Thursday 19 December at 6.30pm. Everyone is welcome to come along and sing with us - all ages and singing abilities, as well as well-behaved and not too vocal dogs. If it is necessary because of inclement weather, we can sing under the shelter cover of the Slipway Quay apartments. Of course, there will be warmed mulled wine and mince pies and hopefully much merriment and Christmas spirit and a chance to meet up with other villagers before Christmas.

Spring show 2020 cancelled

Winter is taking a hold on gardening - a lot of cold wind and rain, leaves to clear and last-minute bulbs to plant. The local garden centre, apart from all the Christmas excitement, still has quite a few possibilities for winter pots and I noticed small shrubs, both berried and evergreen, flowering hellebores and attractive heathers.

We have had our AGM when Jane Espig retired from being the Spring Show Secretary. We've been unable to find someone to take over and although a few people are still willing to help set up, the general feeling is 'We're all getting older!' So, no Spring show in 2020.

The club's committee were re-elected with the exception of Jill Taylor (who is due to move soon). Patricia Cooper was elected in her place. We have one more event this year which is a three-course Christmas meal at the Cardinal's Hatt on Wednesday 11 December, 7 for 7.30. The cost is £22 and Jill Taylor on 01752 841112 is taking last-minute orders and money.

Life Saving Automatic Defibrillators

There are two defibrillators located within our parish, both for public use in an emergency.

1. Landulph Memorial Hall in Fore Street
2. Cargreen Yacht Club, Coombe Lane.

Landulph Memorial Hall defibrillator:

Located adjacent to front doors

To use you are required to input the code 1111 to unlock and press the green 'tick' button to open for access.

Cargreen Yacht Club defibrillator

Located on the front wall of the building before you reach the front doors. This unit is left unlocked, and so no unlock code is required

Please remember in the event that you may need to use one of the above units, that in a cardiac arrest situation, continuous CPR is essential while someone else goes to obtain the defibrillator.

Next edition copy date is 15 January. We cannot guarantee to publish anything received after that date
