

LANDULPH NEWSLETTER

100° greets 100th edition

August/September 2022

Welcome to the 100th edition of the Landulph Parish Newsletter

Back in 2006, a group of community minded parishioners got together to form the Newsletter, using funding from the Tamar Valley AONB Sustainable Fund for the first three editions. The founders (Jo Butcher, Mavis Edmonds, Colin James, Pamela Knight, Trisha Langdon and Val Oatham) then had to think of fund-raising ideas and advertising to pay for the magazine's continued production. The Newsletter Group soon included Morton Macleod, Reg Rice, Sylvia Bedbrook and James Jermain.

In 2006 we were all far less reliant on the internet and social media so the Newsletter had a vital role in advertising forthcoming events. Over the years the magazine has given a valuable insight in to the proceedings of the Parish Council, reports from local clubs and organisations, advertising local businesses and fund raisers, and even been used to advertise the sale of a house. It has informed us about local history, the lives of residents, the sad passing of some real characters but (as yet) no announcements for babies being born. The Newsletter has helped the community come together for local events as well as for purchasing power, for example, for the oil syndicate and Community Broadband.

Nowadays, the newsletter is all written on line with a digital copy being emailed to a printer who then posts all the copies back to us for our dedicated distributors to deliver. Morton MacLeod recounts how, in the early days, 270 copies had to manually printed, folded and stapled at home.

Back copies of the Newsletter are available on Landulph.org.uk Home page (bottom left hand side). For those interested in local history, there are several special editions with articles including the history of Landulph Parish, the Memorial Hall, the Methodist Church, the Spaniards Inn, the Cricket Club, the 1914/18 War memorial clock and the Coryton Family at Pentillie.

Sue Hassan (Chair Newsletter Committee)

Anyone wishing to be involved in the Landulph Parish Newsletter can contact committee members at the email addresses on the inside of the back cover of the magazine. We meet every two months and welcome new ideas and feedback.

LANDULPH NEIGHBOURHOOD PLAN

Parish Council - June

Planning The barn conversion at Collogett Barns had been approved, but the application to build two dwellings at the Cross had been refused by the Cornwall Council planners.

Playground There was a discussion on loose screws. Nothing to do with councillors. The problem is with Penyoke play equipment.

Footpath Cutting Landowners are not responsible for cutting footpaths. The PC has the responsibility and budget for a twice-yearly cut, but the contract is waiting to be let. Councillor Tagg has a map of local footpaths - contact her to see it.

Climate Action Group This has produced a 'Statement of Intent' which the PC needs to review. Cornwall Gateway CAG is emphasising biodiversity. The CAG wants to ask for funding support for the Under-5s, and it was agreed to provide a supporting note from the Council.

Trees The cricket field Jubilee copse is growing. The success rate is typical: 22 out of 30. The failures are all silver birch for some reason. The Tree Warden has some replacement saplings for planting later in the year. Ash dieback is still a problem, and the Chair would be discussing ash trees on footpaths with the Council Tree Officer. The big ash on the recreation ground needs to be watched carefully.

Platinum Jubilee This proved a great success - the Queen was reported to be happy! The £1,000 budget was offset by fund raising, so the actual spend was £548.

A38 The Chair described the Department of Transport's A38 Carkeel to Trerulefoot Safety Package Roadshow. This won't come to Cargreen, but it will visit villages on the A38. The package consists of safety improvements, 50mph average speed cameras and a reduction from 40 to 30mph in the villages. It does not cover the A388, which is part of the Stage 2 Carkeel development. Input from parishioners would be valuable.

Affordable Housing The proposed Housing Needs Survey (sponsored by Cornwall Council's Affordable Housing Team) was controversial! Questions about gender and ethnicity in the Housing Team's submission were thought to be objectionable by some, though not all councillors agreed (on the principle that all data is good data). Councillors needed urgently to agree a draft questionnaire in a face-to-face meeting.

Hedges Hedge cutting over Highdown was nearly a month late. The Clerk reminded the council that they do not have the power to arrange hedge cutting - except for Section 137 (whatever that is) which says they can. So there!

Broadband The Chair gleefully announced that Openreach had agreed to install full fibre broadband to the Memorial Hall.

Bus Shelter The clerk noted that repairs to the bus shelter at the cross could not take place until the absence of bats was confirmed. As someone had stripped all the ivy growth from the inside to survey the damage (probably illegally!), the presence of bats was doubtful. This was Cormac's problem anyway.

Dog Bin The dog bin at the church needs repair and emptying. The Chair keeps trying to arrange for it to be done.

Corruption? And finally... Councillor Braund has been asked to join the Memorial Hall committee, and was worried that this might pose a conflict of interest. He was reassured it wouldn't.

Parish Council - July

Council Vacancies Following the resignation of Councillor Dennis, Diane Gregory and Roger Pugh were voted in to the two vacant positions on the council. Councillor Pugh was immediately drafted as representative for the parish Emergency Plan (sensible, as he wrote it!), and Councillor Gregory would be approached to join the Climate Action Group and County Environmental Action Group.

Housing Needs Survey The Housing Needs Survey is progressing. It will include Hatt/Botus parish. It is based on an Affordable Housing survey originated by the County Council, but is adapted to provide data on the kind of housing our parishes need, not just the 'affordable' kind. It will supplement the Neighbourhood Development Plan, not override it. The survey asks participants about their current housing, their needs in 10 years' time, the services needed, and if you think you are eligible for affordable housing. Respondents can include those wanting to move to the parishes, but not currently living here.

Planning Nothing controversial. Proposals from the house near the church to replace a window, fit PV cells and change a lean-to extension were supported. Councillors also felt that the dormer window proposed for 7 Coombe Drive was an improvement on the original!

Playground With the departure of Councillor Dennis, the council will set up a working group to manage the playground. As financial decisions might be involved, the group will consist only of councillors, though individual parishioners might be co-opted for support.

Emergency Plan The Emergency Plan still has not been published because it contains personal contact details and GDPR applies. It is a bit useless without these details, but it is also pretty useless if not published. Contact details might have to be redacted in the short term just to get it published.

Governance and Finance The financial position was shown on a new spreadsheet, and most things were positive. Playground maintenance was overspent, but this would be covered by the replacement reserve. Gaps had been identified in the Grant Awarding Policy, and a new one was approved.

Noticeboards There is a £3,000 budget to replace the two noticeboards in the village. The Climate Action Group also wants a board, so Councillor Tagg will investigate. Councillor Braund knew of replacement boards made of milk bottles!

Bus Shelter The insurance claim has not yet been processed, but the policy is 'new for old' so a better shelter could be the outcome.

Village Pump Refurbishment has started, but councillors now thought it might be good to relocate it to the green on the junction of Fore Street and Coombe Lane.

Parking There were complaints about a vehicle parked very close to the Coombe Lane/Fore Street junction. Councillors toyed with the idea of double yellow lines, but apart from being effectively unenforceable, this raised all sorts of questions about parking and was better being... parked for now! Parishioners will be asked to park considerately.

Chair's Urgent Business The AONB and Duchy have proposed donating 120 cider apple trees to the parish, to be planted on Duchy land around the church. The idea is that parishioners adopt one or more trees and maintain them, then use the crop to make cider. Further decisions will be made in September, but cider making is still some way off!

Landulph Festival – five wonderful weekends

Don't miss out on the Landulph Festival of Music & the Arts this October! There are five wonderful weekends of great entertainment this year, with experiences to delight all age groups, including an Exhibition of Local Art until 23 October.

Weekend One

Saturday 1 October

An evening of classical music. (Details to be confirmed)

Sunday 2 October

Wurlitza - always a musical and visual treat! Come and listen to live music, of all genres, while watching the silent movie The Kid, a 1921 American silent comedy-drama film starring Charlie Chaplin. Wurlitza will explain how they choose their music and films and adapt their material for a contemporary audience.

Weekend Two

Friday 7 October: Bertie Pearce - prepare to be amazed! A member of the inner Magic Circle with gold star status, Bertie performs a dazzling close up of magic, with original and waggish cabaret. A family friendly evening packed with laughs, tricks, surprises and the real wow factor. Bertie will perform in the school in the afternoon.

Saturday 8 October: Russ Sinclair and the Smokin' Locos - High energy Blues and Blues Rock performers, this band brings original blues and swing up to date with energy bursting from every note. Playing with passion and feeling, Russ makes his guitar sing and every note count as he winds a path from Baton Rouge, Louisiana to Chicago.

Sunday 9 October: How Cotehele became a National Trust attraction - did you know that Cotehele is a war memorial to Piers Richard Edgcumbe, only son of the 6th Earl of Edgcumbe, who was killed at Dunkirk in 1940? Learn more about this fascinating story and gain an insight into how the National Trust's role as custodian of the house, mill, countryside and gardens has changed over time.

Weekend Three

Friday 14 October: Mount Kelly Chamber Choir - Having won numerous prestigious awards and choral competitions, both nationally and internationally, the College Chamber Choir is the flagship ensemble of the School, made up of their most accomplished singers who perform a wide range of challenging music, mostly a cappella. This choir will impress and enthrall an audience of all ages.

Saturday 15 October: Wild West Evening - Don your stetsons and leathers and learn to Line Dance; enjoy a ranch-cooked cowboy supper; pay a visit to the OK saloon for fun and games but keep your cowboy hat handy, because as soon as the country band starts playing, the entire saloon will be up dancing! Bring the whole family for a hooting tooting good time.

Weekend Four

Saturday 22 October: Kathryn Roberts & Sean Lakeman - one of the UK folk scene's most rewardingly enduring partnerships returns to Landulph fresh from Glastonbury and their UK tour. The couple will revisit and reinterpret songs which span their career from the early days of folk supergroup 'Equation' through to the current release 'Personae'. There is with a nod or two along the way to their extra-curricular musical adventures and the evening promises a whistle-stop tour through their artistic journey to date.

Sunday 23rd October: Those Magnificent Men - The award-winning Foundry Theatre Group recreates one of the greatest moments in aviation history and a truly British first. The nail biting, side-splitting true story of the daredevil first ever non-stop flight across the Atlantic by Capt John Alcock and navigator Lt Arthur Whitten-Brown. So strap yourself in and cry 'Chocks away!' for a night of thrills, spills and uproarious comedy.

Weekend Five

Friday 28 October: Village Party Night - compered by our own Richard Hosking, this evening presents the opportunity for all you talented Landulphians to perform on stage to an enthusiastic audience. Let us know about your act by 30 September via 07775 997870 or landulphfestival@gmail.com or take your chance on an Open Mic slot being available on the night.

Angel & the Wingmen: In addition, the former winner of Germany's Got Talent, lead vocalist Angel from Saltash, with her band of epic musicians, the Wingmen (featuring Parish Council Chairman Martin Worth!) will round off the evening by creating a party atmosphere as a fitting end to another great Landulph Festival.

Festival tickets are on sale via the website www.landulphfestival.co.uk or from Clare on 07866 680971.

Could gig rowing come to Cargreen?

Recently there has been a lot of enthusiasm for gig rowing in Cargreen. This was inspired by parish resident, Gill Mannings Cox who had learned that the Cotehele-based wooden gig Zeus was for sale. In just two days, Gill got a group of over 30 local people interested in buying Zeus and with the support, in principle, of the Parish Council and the Yacht Club. The group met at the Yacht Club in July and concluded that the wooden Zeus, which would need undercover storage and considerable annual maintenance, was not suitable, but that a grp gig, which could be kept in the open and be cheaper and easier to run, would be a more suitable 'starter' boat.

As a Community Amateur Sports Club (CASC), Cargreen Yacht Club membership is open to the whole community, and its purpose is to provide facilities for the participation in leisure water activities which could include gig rowing. The Yacht Club is looking into how and whether gig rowing could be incorporated into its activities and Christie Ash is pulling together a business and feasibility plan. The group is also considering making a grant application to the Parish Council.

If you are interested in gig rowing in Landulph, have questions or want to be kept informed about progress, please contact Christie Ash (christie.ash@gmail.com).

Cargreen YC welcomes Olympic sailing gold medallist

When the international circus that is the SailGP came to Plymouth in July, new country on the block, Switzerland, was partnered with Cargreen Yacht Club. Cargreen Cadets were invited to the Swiss team's Plymouth HQ to see the super-hi-tech foiling yachts close up. They also raced with members of the Swiss team in RS dinghies while the cadets gave a display of their own skills in Pico racing on Wednesday evening.

Among the Swiss team members who came to Cargreen was Olympic, World and European 49er Gold Medallist, Stuart Blithell who showed off his Olympic medal and spoke inspirationally to the cadets. The Swiss team, who came armed with cheese and chocolate (Toblerone), praised Cargreen for the number of youngsters on, and in, the water and the obvious enjoyment they got from their sailing. The team departed with pasties, Cornish gin and chocolate, and said it was the best welcome they'd had in all the places they'd been across the world!

Theodore Paleologus – Landulph’s link to Byzantium

Landulph Church was founded by Celtic Missionaries in the dark ages and is built within the boundaries of an original Celtic ‘Lan’ which was a small enclosure of consecrated land.

The present church dates from around 1420 and has a very rich history. But is most famous as the resting place of Theodore Paleologus, a descendent of the rulers of the once mighty Byzantine Christian Empire, whose body was interred at Landulph Church after he died in 1636.

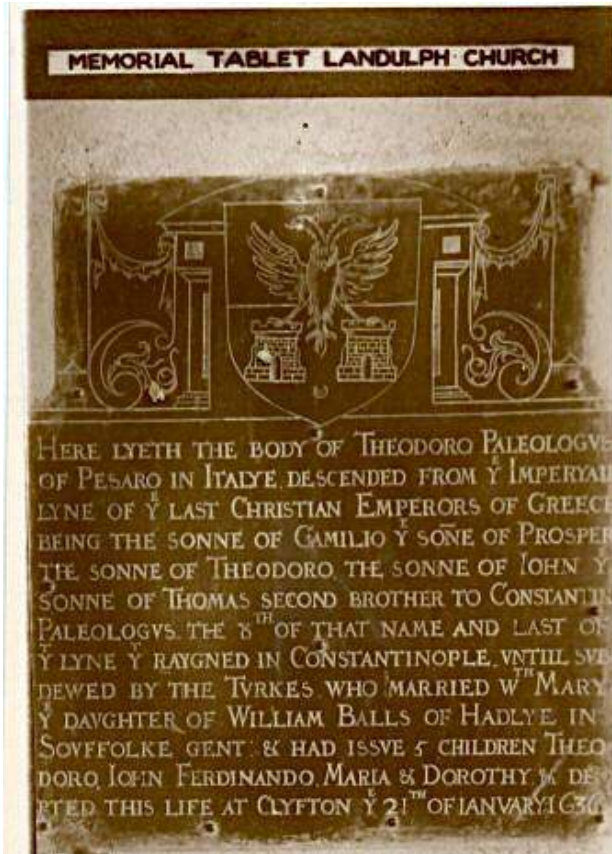

But how did Theodore come to be in Landulph?

Theodore’s ancestor, Emperor Constantine Paleologus, fell in 1453 whilst defending Constantinople from the Turks. His brothers Thomas and Demetrius had ruled the Despotate of the Peloponnes, but were driven out in 1460 by Sultan Mehmet II. Thomas fled to Italy, taking with him the presumptive head of St Andrew the Apostle, and presented the relic to the Pope, who awarded him a pension. Thomas settled with his family in the Adriatic town of Pesaro, where his great great grandson Theodore was born around 1560.

Little is known of Theodore’s early life. He may have been a professional soldier or mercenary and is believed to have spent some time fighting in the Netherlands. It has been claimed that Theodore married Eudoxia Comnena in 1593 who died during the birth of their daughter Theodora, and that Theodora later married Prince Demitrius Rhodocanakis. However this can’t be verified.

By 1600 Theodore was living in England and became Rider to the Earl of Tattershall at Lincoln Castle, where he remained until about 1614. It was here that he made an impression with both his learning and equitation on the celebrated Captain John Smith of future ‘New World’ fame. Theodore married Mary Balls of Suffolk, with whom he had five children who survived to adulthood: Theodore, John, Ferdinand, Dorothy and Mary. By 1619 Theodore was living in Plymouth where his son Ferdinand was baptised.

Around this time he must have become acquainted with Sir Nicholas and Lady Elizabeth Lower of Clifton, Landulph, who invited Theodore and his family to live with them at their home in Clifton. Lady Lower was from a very learned family, and it is presumed she would have enjoyed studying the classics with the Greek Paleologus, who lived the last years of his life at their home.

Theodore died in 1636 and was interred within the church. His memorial, which is fixed near the vestry door, displays the imperial arms of the Empire of Greece, an eagle displayed with two heads, resting on the gates of Rome and Constantinople, with a crescent for the difference of a second son. The memorial also records Theodore's pedigree.

Of Theodore's children, Dorothy married William Arundell of St Dominick, with the marriage recorded in the registers of both Landulph and the neighbouring parish of St Mellion. They are not known to have had any children. Mary did not marry and was left £10 in the will of Sir Nicholas Lower in 1655. Mary died in 1674 and was also interred at Landulph. John lost his life fighting for King Charles I at Naseby. Theodore was living in Tavistock in 1630. He fought for the Parliamentarian side in the English civil war but was killed in 1644 and buried in Westminster Abbey.

Ferdinand is listed as a soldier serving in Plymouth in 1638. He fought for the King in the Civil War, and later sailed to Barbados, where he bought a cotton plantation that he named Clifton Hall. In 1655 he is listed as Churchwarden of the Church of St John in Barbados. Ferdinand died about 1678. He had a son, Theodorious, who became a seaman and he had a daughter, Godscall Paleologus.

In 1795 the Paleologus vault at Landulph was accidentally broken into and Theodore's oak coffin opened. His body was found to be well preserved, of above average stature, with an aquiline nose and a long beard reaching to his chest.

Landulph Church is unique in this part of the world as the final resting place of members of such a noble and distinguished family.

Theodore's memorial plaque has generated great interest and attracted many visitors over the years. It has also been viewed by members of our own Royal family. It lies next to the memorial of his friend Sir Nicholas Lower in the chancel end of the south aisle.

In 2007 Archbishop Gregorios and several bishops, clergy and lay people of the Greek Orthodox Church of Great Britain visited Landulph Church to view Theodore's memorial and celebrate vespers in his memory.

Summer Days Out

Thinking about a day out but the thought of summer parking making you groan? We've been trying some different days out for you, take a look ...

The Cargreen train!

We caught the train from Gunnislake – easy free parking all day - and enjoyed the scenic journey that takes you opposite Cargreen and over the viaducts to Plymouth. We travelled through leafy green tunnels and high above Calstock, spotting old stations, birds and warships along the way. Arriving at Plymouth station it is just a 10 minute walk into the city centre where you can spend the day, whatever the weather, having fun. From the free exhibitions at The Box Museum to a lazy lunch on the Barbican, there's plenty to do!

Looe without the traffic!

We parked at Saltash – again, easy free parking all day – and sat back to enjoy the first part of the journey to Liskeard. No A38, instead spectacular views from viaducts over rivers and valleys. At Liskeard we slipped into a bygone age: visit the Heritage Centre before boarding the train to Looe. You can even download the free

Looe Valley Line App to learn more about the history and things to see along the way. On arrival just a 5-minute walk takes you into the bustling seaside town of Looe. Fish & chips or ice cream anyone?

Gardening Club

From October our meetings will change to the second Tuesday afternoon in the month and talks will begin at 2.30 in the Main Hall.

If you're interested, please come to a free first visit. Afterwards annual membership will be £8. Talks, including refreshment and raffle, are £3. Our first date is Tuesday 11 October and the illustrated talk is The Landscape & Wildlife of Bodmin Moor.

100 Memories

Jo Butcher, who chaired the group which went on to set up the Landulph Newsletter in 2006 remembers how it all started:

'I could write many words about deadlines, fundraising and the amazing comments (good and bad) we had in the first year, but that is all history and I want to use the space given to me to say how much I enjoyed being at the birth of the Landulph Newsletter, congratulate all those who've been instrumental in it reaching its 100th edition and to the various clubs and individuals whose activities provide copy for the Newsletter'.

CYC@50 barbecue draws the crowds

Much fun was had by the many who came to the CYC@50 Summer Barbecue on 15 July. The cadets were there early fuelling up before a couple of hours out on the water practising race starts. New members were invited to come to get the feel of the place and meet others. Those who preferred a quieter time came while the younger members were out on the water. there was good conversation, the locally produced burgers and pork and apple sausages and salads. The cheerful volunteer bar staff and chefs created a great atmosphere for the large group of people who attended.

Regatta Visitors are always welcome to come to CYC events, the next one is the annual Regatta on Saturday 10 September, 4pm until late. There will be the bar, street food from Cornish Maids Kitchen and Windwood Pizza.

Also live music from the Tavy Tars shanty group and Cornish Groove Collective, as well as cruiser racing and the white sail Challenge from the Sound, and a fancy dress Raft Race.

Life Saving Automatic Defibrillators

There are two defibrillators located within our parish, both for public use in an emergency.

1. Landulph Memorial Hall in Fore Street
2. Cargreen Yacht Club, Coombe Lane

Landulph Memorial Hall defibrillator:

Located adjacent to front doors

To use you are required to input the code 1111 to unlock, and press the green 'tick' button to open for access.

Cargreen Yacht Club defibrillator:

Located on the front wall of the building before you reach the front doors. This unit is left unlocked, and so no unlock code is required.

Please remember in the event that you may need to use one of the above units, that in a cardiac arrest situation continuous CPR is essential while someone else goes to obtain the defibrillator.

Next edition copy date is 15 September 2022. Inclusion of any material after this date will be subject to space available. Please contact a Group member for more details
